

Carol Lombard, Kingswood Alum, Joins "Skylarks" Quartet on TV

Carol Lombard, an alumna of Kingswood School Cranbrook, and a daughter of the Nile T. Lombards of Detroit, has been chosen to succeed Jackie Joslin of the "Skylarks", the singing quartet that performs with Dinah Shore.

A pupil of Lois Johnson Chapman while at Kingswood, Carol auditioned for the job two years ago, when it was thought a replacement might be needed. When notified of the opening, she was living in New York City and working at the Paper Mill theater, Millburn, N. J. She is a graduate of Northwestern university, has sung with the New York concert choir and was on the road six months with "The King and I" cast.

The new job is offering many wonderful experiences, the first being her initial trip to the west coast and California. The show is scheduled to travel soon to Las Vegas, Nev., and Honolulu, Hawaii.

Mrs. Robert Leonard of Tottenham road, Bloomfield Village, is Carol's sister.

Bloomfield Village Protective Association Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Bloomfield Village Protective Association was held May 14 in the village school and drew an excellent crowd. The meeting was called to order by Joseph Halden, council president. Candidates for office were introduced and an election was held. New council members are Read Jenkins, district 1; Louis A. Bauer, district 2, and Blaine Eymon, district 3.

Mr. Halden recommended a study of advantages and disadvantages of incorporating as a village. Members agreed and the board was requested to make a thorough study, reporting their findings to the next meeting.

John P. Emmett of Yarmouth road suggested inspection of sewers, drains, etc. This led to general discussion about flooded basements and sewer problems. Mr. Halden went on record as requesting a complete investigation of all sewer problems. He was strongly supported by association members.

The association presented Mr. Halden a plaque in appreciation of his work as council president last year. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Ross just returned from Boston, Mass., where Dr. Ross attended the American Association of Orthodontists convention, which they also visited friends in West Gloucester, Mass.

Visiting them recently were Mrs. Ross' aunt and uncle, the E. G. Uterback, from Denver, Colo., who stopped briefly on their way to Sarasota, Fla., where they plan to make their permanent home. Other family news is that Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. McFarren, Denver will move to Birmingham soon.

With graduation hovering right around the corner many families soon will be heading for various campuses to attend commencement exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cutter, Overhill road, expect to attend the graduation of their daughter, Sally Cutter, June 11. She is majoring in political science at Miami university, Oxford, O. Molly Cutter is hoping to come from Boston and accompany her parents to her sister's graduation.

Howard Green, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Green, Hupp Cross road, will graduate from Dartmouth liberal arts college but will stay one more year to complete his second year in medicine. Carol Lombard, Kingswood alum, joins "Skylarks" quartet on TV.
