Tea Honors College Entrants

A tea honoring high school senior girls who will attend the University of Michigan next year and their mothers were entertained at the home of Mrs. Carl Abbott, 3223 Brudway boulevard, Birmingham, Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Deborah Bacon, dean of Women at the U of M was guest speaker.

Mrs. Thomas Evans, social chairman in charge of the tea was assisted by Mesdames John Ryckwar, Albert Little, Charles Davison and Robert Rouse.

Proceeds from telephone bridges enables the group to provide two scholarships for Birmingham freshmen for 1956-57 in addition to continuing the one for last year. These will be announced at high school swing out time.

Mrs. Norris Host heads the group as president for the 1956-57 season. Other officers are Mrs. Sylvester Leany, vice president in charge of scholarships; Mrs. Mary Faulman, a coding secretary; Mrs. Robert Kincaid, treasurer; Mrs. William Bush, social chairman; Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, program; Mrs. Neil Hyde, ways and means; Mrs. Robert A. Reid, publicity; Mrs. S. E. Bychinsky, membership; Mrs. Thomas Evans, alumnae council representative; and Mrs. Marion P. Neff, merchandise chairman.

Volunteer League Marks Birthday

Woman's hospital volunteer league celebrated its first birthday yesterday at a luncheon in the Detroit hospital.

It was reported that in the past year 181 volunteers gave 10,000 hours of their time to the hospital.

Mrs. John Benfield of Birmingham, who drew up a new set of by-laws, presented them to the group for approval.

The league sponsors several projects, among them being a coffee shop, gift shop and gift and patients' book carts. Members serve as information clerks, messengers, patient aides and clerical workers.

MRS. RICHARD WAGNER of Birmingham helps direct operation of the gift shop. League members from this area are Mrs. T. H. Anderson, Mrs. Benfield, Mrs. C. E. Hanton, Mrs. C. A. Cahn, Mrs. Ralf Crookston, Mrs. Milton Fezroy, Mrs. Emmet Judge and Mrs. Paul Kuhn.

Also serving as volunteers are Mrs. John Longley, Mrs. Patrick Monaghan, Mrs. Sidney Morrell, Mrs. R. M. Olson, Mrs. Carl Sandberg and Mrs. Herbert L. Smith, Jr.

PROCEEDS from various projects enabled the group to present the hospital with an orthopedic table, unique in that it can be used for any type of orthopedic surgery.

Future objects of the league are to complete redecoration and furnishing of a sun parlor and to help with expenses for air conditioning the operating rooms.

Any women who desire to make a community contribution are asked to contact the Volunteers. Special courses of instructions are provided in the duties the women perform.

Return from Miami

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nordman, 1336 Bird, Birmingham, have returned from Miami where they were vacationing for three weeks. Because of the choppy waters, Mrs. Nordman didn't get to go deep sea fishing, however, they did have a week of sightseeing enroute home.
