Next year's class presidents are Ann Graf, (twelfth grade); Kathy VanDusen (eleventh grade); Gale Hummel, (tenth grade); Josie Joy, (ninth grade) and Joan McDonald (eighth grade).

Representatives to next year's student council are Shirley Block, senior representative; Judy Wood, junior representative; Valerie French, sophomore representative; Sara Bartholomew, freshman representative and Gail Burgess, eighth grade representative.

President of next year's Dormitory council is Virginia Westover. The members of next year's Dormitory council are seniors Alex Nason, Mary Prendergast, and Junior Katie Williams.

Exchange Students Announced At Meet

Names of foreign students to attend Birmingham high school next year were announced at American Field Service meeting Saturday at the school.

From Luxembourg, 18-year-old Helene Claudine Catherine Heldenstein will join the Birmingham students for the year. Other student is 17-year-old Tomas de Lima Branquinho da Fonseca, of Portugal.

Lathrup Students Join Council As Civics Project

Participating in the Lathrup council meeting Monday night was part of the civics studies of three seventh grade classes at Lathrup school.

Elected by the students to represent them at the council meeting were Brud Ackles, mayor; Leland Barringer, mayor pro tem; and council members Barton Krueger, Mike Maser and Janet Graveline.

Also joining in the meeting were student city officials Tom Sweet, city manager; George Kapec, clerk, and Bob Stawiak, all appointed by the elected student officers.

During the classes' study of Lathrup, Southfield, Michigan and United States government, Lathrup and Southfield officials have spoken to them on area governmental problems.

Seventh grade teachers are Patrick Bastie, Miss Elizabeth Wallace, and Mrs. Floye Holley.

Amateur Night Acts Win Awards

By KEN CAMERON

Last Saturday night Bob Machus, master of ceremonies of amateur night, introduced skits and musical numbers from Kingswood and Cranbrook schools.

After the show the chairman of the judges, Mr. David Lee, a Cranbrook alumnus, gave the first prize in the single act category to Ingred Lemp of Kingswood. Her imitations were good enough to come out on top of Ed Germain's magic act and Mr. Don McElwee's pantomime.

The Stardusters, under the leadership of drummer Frank Story and bass player, Jon Ewing turned in an excellent performance to win first place in the group acts. A drum duet by Frank Story and Bert Vossler was the climax of the act.

Birmingham Hi-Society

College boards were taken last Saturday at Kingswood by Jill Nethercot, Stu Gray, John Appleford, Sue Polhemus, Paula Strick, Chris Lewis, Nancy Beier, Barb Abbott, Marilyn Bishop and Lynn Squibb.
