

Albion Students Receive Honors

Scholastic recognition was received by Ann Dustman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dustman, 831 Redding road, a senior, and Robert E. Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Terry of 619 Half Moon, a freshman, in the Honors Day convocation at Albion college. Miss Dustman was cited on the Honors Day program not only because of her recent election to Phi Beta Kappa, outstanding national honorary scholastic society, but also because she was one of seven students at Albion taking honors courses during the past academic year. Her work was done in biology.

Terry was named because of his membership in Phi Eta Sigma, national scholastic honorary for freshman men.

MRS. ARTHUR H. ROBINS

Travels to Florida Follow Ohio Wedding

A gown of hand clipped rose point lace over satin was worn by Anne Reed Fain for her marriage to Arthur Henry Robins at 7:30 p.m., Saturday in the Second Presbyterian church of Portsmouth, Ohio.

The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant floor-length skirt had inset bands of pleated nylon tulle with overskirts of tulle. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a painted lace shell edged with fluted illusion.

Ann is the daughter of Mrs. Jeanne Parsell of Portsmouth, Ohio, and John M. Fain of Walnut Creek, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Berger, Robins of Orchard Lake are the parents of the groom.

MRS. JOHN F. Shuster was matron of honor. Attending as bridesmaids were Denise Robins of Orchard Lake, Joanne Thomas and Mrs. David E. Carlson.

They wore identical frocks of nylon-nyl with long fitted bodices, modified scoop necklines and cap sleeves. The bouffant ballerina skirts were rose complemented by a large bow and panels of contrasting seer pink as the back detail.

Robert Spolax of Berwyn, Ill., was best man.

Monticello Senior Rode in Horse Show

Miss Paty Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Spencer, Jr., 321 Fairfax road, Birmingham, rode in the annual Monticello college horse show presented May 19 at the 118-year-old college for women.

The horse show was part of the program for the Fine Arts Festival at the college at which time a play, art exhibit, band concert, choir concert, the horse show and an all-school dance were held on the campus.

Miss Spencer will be graduated from Monticello college, Alton, Ill., June 3.

Oakland WNFG To Tour Gardens

Members of the Oakland branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association attended a tea May 14 which will become an annual affair for the group, organized last September.

Mrs. Jack Giergart of Beverly Hills was hostess assisted by Mrs. Paul Wilson and Mrs. Harold Brown of Windermere road, Birmingham.

A charter member of the Birmingham branch who helps organize new branches, Mrs. William McCallum spoke on "What WNFG Means to its Members." In summary, she said, "you get what you give to each other."

FOUR NEW MEMBERS were accepted into the group. Those desiring to join the branch may contact membership chairman, Mrs. Clyde Lee Toler, of Rochester road, Royal Oak, in whose home the board meeting was held at 1 p.m. Monday.

The women will tour gardens of members on June 11 after the regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Russell Robinson of Royal Oak, at which election of officers will take place.

An honorable mention award was won by the branch for its "low line" arrangement of flowers by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Brown on a luncheon table at Devon Gables during the state WNFG 30th anniversary meeting.

Local Children Will Participate In Music Festival

Karen Sidley, daughter of the Frank Sidleys of Shipman Blvd., and Paul Kuebler, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuebler of Baldwin avenue, will participate in Michigan's annual music festival at Olympia June 2.

They will play a piano duet in unison with other students performing on about 100 pianos.

Paul is a student at Holy Name school and Karen attends Pierce school. They are piano pupils of Mrs. J. William Cunningham of Birmingham Blvd.

ON THE S.S. OCEAN MONARCH just before sailing from New York Harbor bound for a spring cruise to the Coral Isles of Bermuda are Mr. and Mrs. David Burton, 1001 Brookwood drive, Birmingham.

Will-O-Way Stage To Feature Comedy In Summer Season

The Muses, Melpomene and Thalia, traditional masks of the theatre that depict comedy and tragedy will be separated for the coming season at Will-O-Way Playhouse.

Bill Merrill, director of the summer theatre, feels that the fun loving, informal audiences that are attracted to the friendly atmosphere of his converted cider mill much prefer a chuckle to a tear, so the muse depicting tragedy has been banished for the season.

"Anniversary Waltz," a sparkling three-act comedy will be the opening presentation of the '56 season at Will-O-Way beginning June 5 for a two-week run.

It is the story of one man's rebellion against the encroachment of television on the routine of family life. "Anyone who has had trouble tearing junior away from Howdy-Doodle and Pinkie Lee in time for supper should appreciate this one-man battle against the 'Cyclopean Monster,'" remarked Merrill.

Mrs. Davis Heads B'ham WNFGA

Mrs. F. G. Davis was elected president of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, at their annual meeting last Wednesday at the Baldwin public library.

Other officers for the year, opening in October 1956, are Mrs. J. P. McConkie, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Mason, second vice president; Mrs. Stuart Gasston, treasurer; Mrs. C. V. DiPietro, recording secretary, and Mrs. Royal E. Paultette, corresponding secretary.
