Graefield Derby Father Is Now an Old Hand; Invited to 2nd Baby Shower

A unique party was invented recently by Mr. and Mrs. William Dye held at their Brookhaven home. It took the form of a "second baby" shower. They invited not only mothers but also fathers. The idea was that, by the advent of the second child, father should be an old hand, and therefore, included in parties pertaining to the event. The parents honored at this shower were the Richard Motters, Redford. There were 21 guests, including Mrs. Motters' mother. All were former classmates at Redford high school.

The May meeting of Graefield Extension group was at the home of Marilyn Coombe Wednesday evening. "Simplification" was the topic presented by Pat. These girls attended classes conducted by the American Heart Association for women with high blood pressure and cardiac conditions. Ruth Kettunen, instructor, presented a time correct body mechanics in cleaning, washing, ironing and kitchen arrangement. The hostess, Marilyn brought the group resume. Co-hostesses were Peggy Leavitt and Bea Obeyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Disler, Graefield road, recently entertained Mrs. Disler's parents the J. C. McKennas, Shaker Heights, O. The men spent a day golfing at Dearborn country club. At the end of their visit, the McKennas left for Chicago, before returning to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hedgecock, Withersee road, had guests for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boocks and son Fritz, 6, traveled here from Cadillac, Mich. Mr. Boocks is secretary of the Cadillac Chamber of Commerce. He was in this area for a political television appearance in Lansing last Saturday.

The Harry Mackseys, Bretby drive, are home again after spending four months at their winter home in Sarasota, Fla. Their three sons, Michael, Dennis and Timmy, spent their days basking in the warm sunshine and playing in the sand. Highlights of their stay were trips to Miami and Marathon at Key West.

The Don Hoskins, Tewksbury lane, motor to Higgins lake over the weekend to visit friends. Their daughter, Carole, was home from Michigan state university over the weekend. She is looking forward to her senior year in the fall, and practice teaching she will be doing in Birmingham schools.

The Edson Burtons, Eaton road, entertained 11 dinner guests at the evening of May 12. Among their guests was Glenn Robinson from California, a former Birmingham resident.

Last Saturday the Burtons' three children, Maggie, Spike and Tommy, spent afternoon with some little friends who plan to attend Camp Hugged Wood, Canada, this summer. The party was held at the Women's club, Royal Oak.

Cub scouts pack B-34 held its May meeting in Pembroke school gym. A conservation talk was given by Mr. Kendall, followed by a movie on birds.

Many Cubs were awarded wolf badges, gold and silver arrows, and denner stripes. Judges had a difficult time awarding prizes for the three best hand hunters. Winners: Steve Hudler, Ray Embury and Bill Schreffler, were each awarded a flashlight for design and skill.

Newcomers to Manor road are the Louis Graboos, former Detroiters. They have a married daughter, Mrs. Fred Stobben, living in Toledo, O. Mr. Graboos is with the Midwest Women's Company. He enjoys golfing.

The Arthur Staleys are now residents on Tullamore drive. Their move was from Chicago. He has four children, Marilyn, J. Kevin, J. Michael, 2, and Karen, 1 month. Mr. Staley is a sales representative with Continental Can company, Detroit. Among their favorite sports are golf and gardening. Mrs. Staley is very

Oakland County Council PTA Installs at Annual Meeting

Nineteen Oakland county schools were represented when members and guests of Oakland county council of parent-teacher associations met recently in Sashabaw Plains school at Drayton Plains for their annual meeting.

Clifford Smart, state legislation chairman, recommended to the group that each local PTA have at least one program a year on legislation to acquaint parents with facts concerning laws to be voted on at elections.

MRS. ALAN ARMSTRONG of Hickory Grove school was installed as president, serving with her will be Mrs. John Warren of Scotch school, first vice president, and Mrs. Walter Havran of Sashabaw Plains school, second vice president.

Workshops were held for officers and chairmen of local units. At the first regular council meeting next fall were to include the president of each local unit in membership on the executive board of the council to each month preceding a regular meeting of the council. They will help local presidents by requiring them to attend only one meeting a month instead of two.
