Vacation Experiences, Native Hawaiian Foods

By VIRGINIA COLE

Recently vacationing in Hawaii were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Holt of Thurbur road. The couple flew to Los Angeles where they stopped at the Hollywood Roosevelt before taking off for the islands. While there, they enjoyed dining at the famous Coconut Grove where entertainer Peggy Lee was featuring.

In Honolulu they stayed at the Surf Rider. Two outstanding experiences were attending a Luau, native Hawaiian dinner featuring specially prepared roast pig, and a Hukilau or a dinner where natives catch the fish and cook them on the spot.

MR. AND MRS. HOLT

THEY ATTENDED a broadcast of the radio show Hawaii Calls which originates at the Reef hotel and Easter Sunday found them at services in the outdoor gardens of the Royal Hawaiian hotel. Also of special interest was a 110-mile trip around the island visiting sugar-cane plantations, viewing pineapple fields and the Mormon Temple.

While they were there, friends of theirs arrived on the Lurline and meeting them was a fascinating experience. The gala and colorful welcome that the natives extend to the ship's passengers is most exciting.

ON THEIR return they flew back to San Francisco where they stayed a few days at the Mark Hopkins hotel. While there, they appropriately topped-off their 3-week vacation on the islands with dinner in the Tonga room at the Fairmont hotel which features Hawaiian music and food.

The Cast Party To Follow Ending Of '5th Season'

"The cast party," it's called. It means the celebration after a play's ending of the friendships and good times resulting from working together on a production.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moriarty, Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Netter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gillen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crichton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Eder and Mr. and Mrs. Milt Manley.
