Tree Planting Ceremony Held on Harlan School Site

The C. A. Harlans of North Adams road contributed several hundred small trees to be planted around the site for the new Harlan school, located west of Adams, south of Watterles in Bloomfield township.

These seedlings have had at least one year's growth and will provide a natural tree belt around the school site when the school is completed in the fall of 1957. Cub scouts and other scout groups are planting trees Saturday morning. When the "planting bee" was over, the Harlans served cocoa and doughnuts to the children and adults who attended.

The Leonard Lane association held its annual election of officers April 25 at the home of the Robert K. Harlan drive. New officers elected were Robert W. Harlan, president; Paul Taylor, vice president; William McCardy, treasurer; and Alan Yates, secretary.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

25th ANNIVERSARY
 Newcomers to Leonard Lane subdivision are the Edward Millers of Bolingbroke. They have two grown children, Julie living at home and "Buzz", married and living in Detroit. Mr. Miller is associated with the brokerage firm of Smith, Hague and Nobel in Detroit. Among their interests are gardening and fishing.

The Millers celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday evening, April 25 with dinner at Devon Gables. Their children were there to make the happy occasion complete.

Other new residents are the Edward Getters, also on Bolingbroke, formerly of Detroit. Mr. Getter is supervisor in pattern making and engineering with Chrysler Corp. The Getters have two granddaughters living with them, Roseanna, 10, and Rita, 7, attending Holy Name. Sons, Raymond and Edwin are married and are living in Detroit and Ferndale. Gardening heads the Getters' hobby list.

The Richard Johnstons of Newport are newcomers. Mr. Johnston is a director of market analysis in the Plymouth division of Chrysler Corp. Their many hobbies and trips up north will take a back seat for awhile, as a "little new-comer" will be arriving just any day now.
