Albert McLarens Leave On Flying European Trip

The Albert McLarens of Lathrup avenue are definitely not keeping their feet on the ground these days. Leaving by air this morning for New York, they will be on a British Overseas plane the same afternoon headed for London.

With a brief nod to the foggy town, they take off again for Paris, Holland, Belgium, Germany and Italy and perhaps Sweden. Only in Switzerland will they desert the air in favor of a quaint old-fashioned train that winds among the Alps for a closer look at the breath-taking scenery. Back to London for a longer stay, and home after four exciting weeks.

The thrill of seeing a grand daughter for the first time is an added pleasure to the visit of Mrs. James Miller of Pacific Grove, Calif. Mrs. Miller arrived Friday to stay with her sons, the Alan Millers of Glenwood and Laurence Millers of Ruckham. At a family dinner on Sunday, she made the acquaintance of six-month-old Kristi Ann, daughter of the Laurence Miller, Jr., of Mo. . .

Birthday parties are even more fun when they bring the home from school to celebrate. David S. Orizer, son of the David Orizers of Bloomfield, returned from Michigan State university, where he is a freshman, for a 19th birthday party at his home Sunday, bringing co-ed Shannon Bettison, Rose Marie Berns and Johnny Servino to join the fun. Brother Danny Orizer and Bob Wheeland added the senior Orizers in the celebration which lasted until the students returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bernard Robertson of Glenwood entertained at luncheon and cards last Thursday. Guests were Mrs. Ray Macdonald, Mrs. Robert Womerdich, Mrs. Letitia Cobb, Mrs. Hal Freund, Mrs. Bruce Sheffer, Mrs. Laurence Gardner and Mrs. Mae Powell.

Mrs. L. Bernard Cross of Sunnybrook is spending the week-end in Akron, Ohio, as guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ellen K. Dyra. Mrs. Dyra is manager of the

Mrs. Henry Mika Wins Ribbons At Ford Rotunda Flower Show

Mrs. Henry Mika, of Kirkshire, member of the East Beverly branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden association, won a red ribbon for her floral "Sea-around-us" arrangement at the flower show at Ford Rotunda.

With her mother Mrs. L. E. Gay of Rosedale, Mrs. Mika also received a blue ribbon for a continental breakfast table arrangement.

New officers for the W.N.F.G. Beverly branch will be installed at the meeting held in the home of Mrs. William Compton, 1771, with Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Daniel Baur and Mrs. William Dehm, co-hostesses.

Mrs. Frank Webb, member of the Birmingham W.N.F.G. will direct a workshop on flower arrangement. Members are asked to bring scissors, containers and flower slips. Mrs. Webb is well-known in garden groups throughout the area for her hobby of roses and their culture.

Officers of the East Beverly branch are Mrs. William Dehm, president; Mrs. William Ponney, vice president; Mrs. Howard Palmer, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward Crona, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, treasurer.

Mrs. Richard Cass of Marguerite, will sing a group of selections from Show Boat in the Muses' spring program at the MacGregor library auditorium May 7. The Muses is a musical organization known for its patronage of music and young musicians. It presents a yearly scholarship to music students selected through auditions.

Karen Lytle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lytle, Auburn drive, celebrated her ninth birthday with a party. Guests were Carol Osann, Ellen Colner, Beth Downs, Nancy Ewell, Joan and Janet Hirschler, Donna Drott, Barbara Gilbert and Linda Wilson.

Fashion, Beauty Editor to Speak To Lathrup Women

LATHRUP—Mary Morgan, fashion and beauty editor of station CKLW-TV, will be featured guest of the Lathrup Women's club on Monday when she will speak on "Family Life".

ST. BEDE SOCIETY

With a softness in the air, and birds giving promise in the garden, what could be nicer than a spring dance party? Members of St. Bede's Sanctuary Society have tickets to a spring get-together to be held at Glen Oaks country club May 11 at 8:30 p.m.

LATHRUP PTA

Lathrup school PTA will hold the final meeting of the year on Tuesday. An open house will precede the meeting when parents are invited to visit classrooms and inspect students' work.

Refreshments will be served at the club of the meeting by the third and fourth grade room mothers. Mrs. Willis Ludeman, chairman, will accompany the group in various selections.

Mother and Dad were honored guests at a dance given Friday by fifth grade Lathrup school students in their final party of the year. Eighty-five parents and students enjoyed ballroom and square dancing under the direction of Bill Pickens. The gym was decorated in a spring motif, and guests' name tags in the shape and color about 100 scouts. Mrs. McHugh and her chaplain, Mrs. Ruby Howard and Mrs. Jon Capron, sergeant at arms, were served coffee and cookies.

Girl scouts in troops 358 and 271 will have lunch in scout troop 671 on Saturday and attend Cinema Holiday. Mrs. William Monahan, Mrs. John Duffy, Mrs. Thomas Devisine and Mrs. Jo Carriere accompanied the group.

Mrs. Al Johnson, who is leaving soon for her new home in Niles, was honored guest at a luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Neuman on Arlington drive. Mrs. Chuck Brindle and Mrs. William Simpson were co-hostesses.

Invited were neighborhood friends and each brought a handkerchief as a farewell gift. Judy Brindle honored Diane Joldersma on Saturday at dinner. Guests were Margaret Mand, McCarty, Sandra Hall, Ronne Pasutin, Judy Beach and Peg Neumann.

Mrs. William Ward of Emmons avenue will be escorted to the Methodist church mother and daughter banquet this evening by her daughters, Mrs. Robert Quail and Mrs. James Kelly; her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Vernelle Ward and Mrs. Leo Ward; and her six granddaughters, Fatti Jean Ward, Linda, Sharon and James Quail and Kathleen and Gay Marie Kelly.

Bob Moss and Jack Kilar will leave tomorrow for the Kentucky Derby.

Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Altar Society is sponsoring a square dance at Gramer's barn, 11 mile and Inaker, Saturday evening, May 12 from 9 to 11 with H. MacCarter calling the dances. General chairman is Mrs. Wilfred Best with co-chairman Mrs. Chuck Best and ticket chairman Mrs. Charles Greiner.

EAST SOUTHFIELD—At the S-8 cub scouts pack meeting, East Southfield school, wolf badges were awarded to Brian Butler, Gary Daniels and Bruce Weston. Bob and Bruce Weston. All dens displayed bird houses they had made.

Truck Strikes Auto Flooded by Water; Four Persons Hurt

BLOOMFIELD TWP. — Three Flint people were hospitalized Friday when their car was struck from behind by a truck after the auto had stalled while going through a flooded stretch of highway at Quanton and Telegraph.

Everett Alle, 22, the car's driver, suffered multiple cuts and bruises. His passengers, Patricia Mills, 17, and Cherone Dedrich, 18, were admitted to St. Joseph Mercy hospital with possible internal injuries.
