

Re-elected Treasurer

Mrs. I. W. Robertson of Brookside, Birmingham, was re-elected state treasurer of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs in Flint at the 35th annual convention in April.

Others attending from Birmingham were Mrs. D. L. Tate, Mrs. Robert D. Lynd, president of the Birmingham Musicale, and Mrs. H. H. Gardner.

A highlight of the program was the presentation of the $1000 piano award to Shirley Seguin, a student of Walter Schrott of the Birmingham Conservatory of Music, made by Lloyd Grinnell.

When Shirley was just ten the Birmingham Musicale opened its 1947-48 season by presenting her.

Within the past year Shirley was also a winner of the Maxwell and Music Clubs cash awards and will make an appearance at the Detroit Institute of Arts in her own solo recital May 5 under the auspices of the Music Study Clubs.

Board to Host Students, Mothers

Board of Quarten PTA will be hostess to the sixth grade girls and their mothers at a tea from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jean Greene, 312 Lake Park, Birmingham.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Colin Johns, Mrs. Jack Luala and Mrs. William Leachon, made the invitations and will make individual corsages.

Mrs. Robert Wyatt, president, will introduce Laurena Pringle of the Detroit Free Press, who will give points on being ready for high school and the new awareness of their personalities.

Sets Altar Date

Geraldine LaVonne Robertson announces Aug. 7 as the date for her marriage to Dale Partee, son of the Cecil Partees of Farmington. Geraldine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robertson, 1601 Rochester road.

Music Week Proclaimed

The 35th Annual National and Inter-American Music Week will be celebrated during the period of May 6 to 13 with the keynote theme "Music Keeps Your Life in Tune."

Events leading up to the observance include the Moment Musical annual spring concert which took place last evening and the annual high school band concert this evening.

Birmingham Musicale program has been planned to take place during National Music week, May 11.

According to Governor G. Mennen Williams' proclamation, the first fall week in May has for a long time served as a time set aside by leaders in the world of music as a time for noting the meaning which music has to the citizen in his everyday living.

The second, Sunday, Mother's Day, is included in order to provide an opportunity to honor mothers with music.

Sorority to See Nephrosis Film

Mrs. Frederick J. Crockett, Melbourne avenue, Birmingham, will show a color sound film on nephrosis to the Bloomfield Hills alumnae group of Pi Beta Phi Tuesday.

The occasion will be the organization's founders day luncheon at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. W. L. Shaffer of Rochester.

After the film, which will acquaint them with facts about nephrosis, members will have an opportunity to question Mrs. Crockett. She is a Pi Phi alumnae and chairman of the Birmingham National Nephrosis Foundation.

Also available for questioning at the luncheon will be Robert Kirkpatrick, chairman of the Ypsiunitis foundation, and Mrs. H. W. Anderson, who heads the Ann Arbor nephrosis chapter.

Piety Hill DAR To Elect Tuesday

Mrs. Clarence Wacker, Safford avenue, Birmingham, Michigan state regent, DAR, recently attended the DAR continental congress in Washington, D. C.

SFC will report on the convention to her local chapter, Piety Hill, when the group meets Tuesday to elect officers. They'll gather for dessert luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Fred M. Brock, Lone Pine court, Bloomfield Hills.

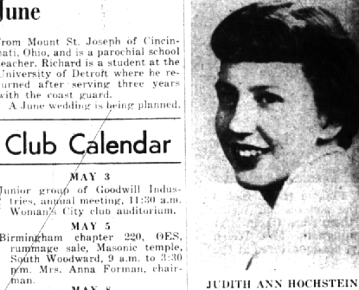

Mrs. E. D. Holtz is chairman of the hostesses for the event. Assisting will be Mrs. John H. Clark, Mrs. William Farrington, Mrs. Glenn Phelps, Mrs. Dale Miller, Mrs. Robert Kerley, Mrs. Fred Seghers and Mrs. Thomas C. Yard.

Altar Date Set for June

Showers Honor Nancy Grigg

EAST SOUTHFIELD — Nancy Grigg, daughter of the George F. Gordon Stevenson of Fairfax avenue, Aberdeen avenue, has been guest of honor at several home of Mrs. Grigg, Jr., on Greenfield.

Michigan communities have organized more than 50 industrial credit corporations. These groups have raised funds for the purpose of buying land or erecting buildings for industries seeking a plant location.

Mrs. George F. Grigg, Jr., gave a miscellaneous shower in April. Mrs. Brown's home was the scene of another shower with Mrs. Lawrence Brown of Everett avenue as co-hostess.

Neighbors and friends were invited to a party for Nancy by Mrs. Gordon Stevenson of Fairfax avenue. The bride-elect's matron of honor, Mrs. Gordon Olsen, of Minneapolis, Minn., will be hostess at a personal shower tonight in the church, Detroit, to Richard Brown, son of Mrs. Helen Brown of Ferndale.
