Mell Retires From Local Post Office

GROVER C. MELL filled the mail boxes for the last time Monday at the Birmingham post office. Mell retired after 29 years with the postal service. He was born in Birmingham, Ala., and worked for the last 27 years in Birmingham. He is now residing at 1368 Beneville, Birmingham.

Agree Assets Properly Shared

All common assets of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield townships have been properly divided. It is being decided after 22 years. The division of assets was made upon the incorporation of the Hills in 1932 and Birmingham in 1933. So Birmingham commissioners closed the account on the recommendation of the city assessor's office, which said delinquent tax returns have not come in for several months, and if they did, they'd be so small they'd not be worth going to Pontiac for.

Accident Cases Continue Increase, Moxley Reports

The number of auto accidents continues to increase in Birmingham, according to the quarterly report released by Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley. Total accidents for the first quarter of 1956 were 377, higher than last year's first quarter total. The report said total number of persons injured increased from 19 last year to 25 in the first three months of '56, an increase of 84%.
