

MRS. JAMES T. LONGE

Kiente-Longe Rites Solemnized Saturday

Rose Marie Kiente and James Thomas Longe exchanged rings and wedding vows Saturday in Holy Name church, Birmingham.

Parents of the bride are the Herman J. Kientes of Park Avenue, Birmingham. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Clemens of Bloomfield Hills, and the late Thomas J. Longe.

ALL WITNESSES for the couple were members of the immediate families. Marion Kiente was maid of honor for her sister, Bride maid was the bridegroom's sister, Catherine. Two brothers of the groom, Patrick and Thomas, served as best man and usher, respectively. Dr. George F. Klohn of Detroit, Rose Marie's brother, also acted as guest.

The rites were solemnized by Father Edmund Schwager, in the presence of 150 guests.

Proceeding the bride down the aisle were the bridesmaids, dressed in blue taffeta floor length gowns with boleros. They wore matching net garden hats and carried bouquets of pink roses and ivy.

LACE FLOWERS and iridescent sequins were applied on the long net sleeves and bodice of the bride's gown, styled with a high neck.

CAROL ANN COOPER and Paul E. Haefner are planning a September 15 wedding. Their engagement is announced by the bride-elect's parents, the Edward B. Coopers of Grosse Pointe Farms, Paul, who lives on Graefield road, Birmingham, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Haefner of Jackson.

Local Students Help Form Debate Forum at U of M

Several area students at University of Michigan along with other members of the Michigan debate squad, recently formed a new club, the Michigan Forensic Forum, with its purpose to further forensic activities and opportunities.

Dorothy Ojala, Ann street, is secretary of the group, and William VanderKloof, of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, was elected vice-president. Publicity chairman is Ruth Corrigan of Northlawn drive. They are all sophomores. Dorothy is political science, William is pre-law, and Ruth is speech and English.

Charter members of the forum numbered 22. A membership campaign will be conducted in the fall to interest more students.
