Girl Travels to Europe With Her Grandmother

There are exciting times ahead for Hope Hymans of Yarmouth road, daughter of the Paul Hymans. Hope left last week for New York with her mother and Mrs. Arthur DeRosier, her aunt. They spent several days shopping before Hope boarded the liner "Americana" to go abroad with her grandmother, Mrs. Stewart Hanley, Ann Arbor.

They plan on attending the Curtiss cup golf matches which hold special significance for Mrs. Hanley, as she accompanied the first team that participated years ago.

Traveling on to Amsterdam, Holland, they plan to meet another aunt of Hope's, Miss Helen Hanley, Birmingham. The trio will travel to Copenhagen and, possibly, Stockholm before returning on the "Britanica" in July.

Exner Promoted

Cadet Virgil M. Exner, Jr., a senior student majoring in art at University of Notre Dame, Indiana, has been promoted to cadet captain in the United States Air Force reserve officers' training corps, in recognition of his proficiency in discharging cadet assignments. His parents are the Virgil M. Exners of Westwood drive, Birmingham.

He opens his beak the moment he catches sight of her.

After the chipper little pet learned to fly, the family thought it best to release him one morning. He is so tame he was reluctant to leave his foster family and, while tarrying, was set upon by the family tabby. The family joined the chase and had a few bad moments until their pet was retrieved more scared than harmed. The bird is again in Cheryl's competent hands until he can test his wings once more.
