trend toward combined school and recreation centers.

In explaining the purpose of Presidents' Day, Mrs. Leonard H. Weiner, chairman of the UCS women's committee, said, "Since women play a big part in many community efforts, we feel that the day is a good way to meet each other person-to-person and bring each other up-to-date on every organization's current program and pattern for the latest national progress."

Leader of Women's Groups To Attend Presidents' Day

Presidents of Birmingham women's organizations will join other leaders of women's groups from the entire metropolitan Detroit area on Presidents' Day, June 4, from 1 to 3 p.m., at Cannon memorial recreation center on Gullford avenue, Detroit.

Designed to bring together women leaders so that they may share experiences in community activities, the day is sponsored by the women's committee of metropolitan Detroit United Community Services.

Another resident, Mrs. Don W. Hunter, chairman of the UCS tribute fund, will take part in the program.

Representing the Birmingham Junior League will be president Mrs. George Squibb, Mrs. J. D. Ramsey will attend as president of League of Women Voters. Sunday—June 17th—will be

FATHER'S DAY

'Tis the lone day in all the year appropriately his. Make the most of it, as Dad does for all the family on so many other occasions all through the year.

A LaBelle Gift, you may be sure, will "click" with him. For his leisure hours there are books, mighty good books; there are personal things in beautiful leather such as any man loves and grows fonder of the longer he uses them; things are here for his office, or for Dad "at home."

Everything will be gift-wrapped, and we make it a special point to help youngsters shop carefully for their favorite pal.
