MRS. JOSEPH E. LANSING, JR.

Cranbrook Chapel Is Scene of Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Lansing, Jr. are making their home in Oak Park until June when they will move to Colorado. Their marriage was solemnized May 19 by Rev. William Norvell in St. Dunstan chapel of Christ church, Cranbrook.

The bride is the former Shirley Elaine Singos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Singos of Eton Cross road, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband's parents are the Joseph Lansings of Detroit.

FRENCH IMPORTED tulle fashioned the bridal gown styled with a portrait neckline, cap sleeves and pleated tulle bodice. Silk embroidery enhanced the bouffant tulle skirt. A seed pearl trimmed shirred tulle cap secured the bride's veil. She carried a spray arrangement of lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis.

Iris S. Patten of Lakeside road, Bloomfield Hills, sister of the bride, was gowned in a pale lavender silk sheath for her duties as matron of honor. Her hat was dusty rose braided Milan straw with a tiny veil and Pinocchio roses and lily-of-the-valley made up her bouquet.

A PINK SATIN cash accented the white organza dress worn by the flower girl, Jeanne Skillman of Charing Cross road, Bloomfield Hills. She carried tiny Pinocchio roses.

A nephew of the bride, Jonathan P. Patten, dressed in a white linen suit, served as ring bearer. Myron P. Patten was best man.

MOTHERS of the newlyweds pinned white orchids to their corsages for the occasion. Mrs. Singos wore a raw silk rose-beige sheath with bolero and matching hat. The mother of the groom chose a dusty rose odored hat to match her shantung dress.

Blast Surprise
 Oakland, Calif. — A pedestrian, sauntering down the street, stopped to light his pipe and half block of sidewalk began to burn with a bang. The startled pipe-smoker fled and police never could find him to learn if he had been burned. A leaking gas main beneath the pavement caused the explosion and the trail of fire which ran along the cracks. A truckload of sugar, valued at $10,000, was destroyed.

Hits Wrong Car
 Helena Mont. — While driving along the highway, Albert A. Foster, 31, took a bite out of a plum and decided he did not like it. Without looking, he tossed it out. The plum splattered against the windshield of a car driven by Pa. trolian Ernie Delbycker, who stopped Foster and charged him with dumping garbage on a public highway.
