Cub Scouts Activities Include Honors, Outings

The regular monthly meeting of cub pack B23 took place Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Pembroke school. Jon Hawley and Paul Reardon received wolf badges. Bear badges were presented to David Fore, Jon Hawley, and Michael Robertson. Lion awards went to Frederick Kaufmann and Jon Hawley. A total of 25 arrow points were presented by Cubmaster Barber.

George Ward, pack committee chairman, announced the results of the scout exposition ticket sales. Star salesman for the pack was Mike Wilkerson, who received a flashlight for his efforts. Paul Reardon came in second and about twenty boys received tie clips as rewards for selling the required number of tickets. Mr. Ward praised the boys for the good job they did.

A few of the hardest den mothers took their groups to the exposition and reported many successes. Den 11, under the guidance of Mrs. Maurice Baumann, was in charge of the "entertainment." Theme of the skit was "Hoboes," and Mrs. Baumann made it clear that the boys were responsible for their own costumes and pantomime.

The boys' enthusiasm was surpassed only by their imaginations, as hoboes from all over the country congregated around a community cauldron. Each hobo, dressed in makeshift finery typifying the section of the country he hailed from, pulled a vegetable from the depths of his costume and added it to the cauldron stew. The only exception was the hobo from outer space, who added a pill as his contribution.

Cub master Barber announced that the final pack meeting of the 1955-56 season will be a family picnic June 9. More details will be announced later at individual den meetings.

Mrs. Maurice Baumann, den 11, is taking her group of boys to Detroit June 2 via commuter train. They will have lunch downtown and visit points of interest, possibly the General Motors and Fisher buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hedgecock, Witherbee road, who have a vacation lodge in Cadillac, Mich. left last Friday to spend the weekend there. On the way, they stopped in Mt. Pleasant for daughter, Ann, and her guest, David Rae, who are students at Central Michigan college.

A novel birthday party honored Richie Madvin last Sunday. He celebrated reaching five. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Madvin, Derby road, Richie entertained 15 little neighborhood guests. The party show, Professional puppeteer, Carol Tait, a family friend presented the show. Mrs. Tait gave the children an extra treat, showing them her latest development—a puppet that writes and draws.
