Franklin children who did not attend the kindergarten roundup May 16, may also attend visit the kindergarten school and meet the kindergarten teacher, Miss Beth Egbert.

Sue Roseberry Presents Pupils In Dance Recital

BY NATALIE YINGLING
FRANKLIN — Sue Roseberry, of Franklin, will present her pupils in a dance recital Saturday, June 2, at 8 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House. There will be ballet, character and interpretative dancing to depict the theme, Happy Childhood Memories. Although Sue is only 16, and a sophomore at Birmingham high school, she has been teaching dancing for four years. This is her third recital. Her 52 pupils are between the ages of 4 and 11. Robin Davison, Mary Margaret Sizoo, Carolyn Finn, Mary Ellen Meyers, Antonia Quint and Sandy Kahn are in the four-year-old class. Judy and Jean Rosiello, Kay Heideman, Yvonne Troutaud, and Rulaine Hacker have been in class since she first started teaching. Rulaine will do a dance which she has composed herself.

Woodcreek Women's Association Elects New Slate of Officers

Woodcreek Women's association recently elected Mrs. Fred Missal president. Mrs. John Mereshak is vice president; Mrs. John Kelly, secretary; Mrs. Alex Kennedy, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Robert Bieker, treasurer.

This active group of approximately 400 civic-minded women, does all sorts of kind, neighborly things for others. Formed during the war, by about 15 ladies, the association began by making army size bags and doing Red Cross knitting over a cup of tea. Since then, they have grown in numbers and scope. They send CARE packages, help an Indian family in New Mexico and give financial aid to a needy township family. At Christmas they dressed dolls for the hospital.

They advise anyone wishing to donate white material to contact one of them. Mrs. Vernon Fisher, Mrs. Roy Odie, Betty Gress, Jane Ann Barrett, Mary Jane Kramer, Patty Dilow, Nancy Smith, Mary Jane Robertson, Lynn Searls, Candy Banfield, Sharon Stebbins, Janice Cook, Shelly Doyle, Cindy Finn, Nancy Dozier, and Connie Barrett.

The first agricultural college in America was Michigan State college, established in 1855.

The state of Michigan was the first to introduce roadside picnic tables to America. More than 3,000 charmingly rustic and restful roadside picnic grounds have been established in Michigan by the State Highway department.

Nancy Fisher recently flew to Rochester, N. Y., for a few days parrying before serving as maid of honor at Barbara Anne Butcher's wedding. The girls were roommates at Stephens. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fisher drove over later, arriving in time for a buffet supper, night before the wedding.

Mrs. C. W. Truxell and sons, John and Clyde, spent last week-end at their cottage on White Lake. John is on leave from the navy, but departs soon for two years in the Philippines. Clyde just finished four years in the air force, and returns to college in the fall.

Mrs. Folke Halward, Bristol Lane, entertained 50 members of the Swedish Engineering society ladies auxiliary for tea and a charity bazaar last week. Proceeds will be used to buy an iron lung.

The Madrigal society, Detroit, sang on the radio minute parade in celebration of Michigan week. Mrs. Lloyd Nelson, Woodcreek, sings second alto with the group.

Musical talent must run in the family. Seventeen-year-old Ginny Nelson, who will be a Farmington senior next year, has won a scholarship to Westminster Choir college, Princeton, N. J. Kirk-in-the-Hills church is sending four high school students showing unusual ability, progress and interest in music. Ginny will leave July 16 for the three weeks of intensive music study.

At a recent meeting of St. Anne's guild, Mrs. John Sailer was elected chairman. Mrs. John Whiting, co-chairman; Mrs. Walter Kaeten, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Leo Wischman, recording secretary, and Mrs. William Wischman, treasurer.

Committee chairman have been appointed. They are: hospitality, Mrs. P. G. Gerlach; publicity, Mrs. Robert Squiers; house, Mrs. Edwin Casenhiser, and cancer pals, Mrs. Leo Burr.

Next Wednesday, the group will meet to make cancer pals at the home of Mrs. Leo Burr, 31215 Luccerne.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hunter, Colony Hill, have a houseguest—Mrs. Hunter's father, Burr Warner of Flint. They are all driving to Cincinnati for a few days with the Hunter's daughter, Mrs. James Tyler.
