ELVA BEUKEMA MI 4-8247

Robin Andersen was hostess to nine of her schoolmates Friday. A slumber party at the home of her parents, the Stanley Andersens, Devonshire, was the event. Dancing, charades, cokes and snacks preceded the slumbers. Breakfast was served next morning to Carol Schuster, Barbara River, Catherine Shank, Sharon Sommers, Janet Boley, Cary Black, Judy Beach, Nancy Herrman and Sharon Noye.

To be on hand when the SS as their headquarters. They hope United States docks in New York to see a few Broadway plays, as well as greet her parents, the Walter Andersens, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. William Price will leave for New York June 1. They plan a fishing season, a group of 10 men five-day stay, with the Taft hotel celebrating with a stag get-together.

Slumber Party Ritual—Dancing, Charades, Eats

Each year the locale is selected by a different member. This year's spot is up in the wilds of Maine. So, with a station wagon-load of fishing gear and supplies, Stewart Barton and Louis Bernardini took off in a cloud of dust recently to indulge in 10 days of angling.

Attending the 500-mile auto race at Indianapolis this week are the Bill Margroves of Birwood. They motored down Tuesday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Herbert Kuhlman.

Having returned to their Devonshire road home after five months at Long Boat Key, Sarasota, Fla., Roy Horne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Horne, Buckingham road, now a medical corpsman, is receiving extra training in the field medical school, Camp Pendleton, Calif., before he sails to Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anger opened their home on Buckingham to 100 guests for a buffet supper and wedding reception Saturday. The marriage of Mrs. Anger's sister, Mrs. Henry Victor Windsor.

Mothers of prospective members of next year's kindergarten class are invited to the annual kindergarten round-up at Beverly school June 4. They are acquainted with teachers and school.

Beverly fathers and sons lobbied for their hobby at the year-end meeting May 22 at Beverly school. Mr. Swartz, sixth grade teacher, arranged a display and demonstration of hobbies, joint projects of fathers and sons. James Dahn demonstrated his model railroad equipment and spoke on model trains. Mr. Harlan Ritzke with son Bill, demonstrated radio-controlled model airplanes.

Among area students selected to become members of the National Honor Society at Birmingham high school are Judy Krempa, daughter of the Edward Krempas, Medford; Susan Tabor, daughter of the Lawton Tabors, Devonshire; Patricia Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, Beaconsfield; and Deleane Domes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Domes, Kirkshire. Judy and Susan are juniors. Pat and Deleane are seniors.

Deleane received extra honors, for she will graduate "summa cum laude" and was awarded "quill and scroll" for her journalism work.

When cheer leading try-outs were held at Birmingham high school, Judy Krempa and Sharon Byers were chosen.

In town briefly last week was former resident Elmer Neirmer. He now resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

Former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bingham, recently moved into their new home on West 14 Mile road. Mr. Bingham is treasurer of Detroit Controls Division of American Standard. He attended Washington and Jefferson university, Washington, Pa.; while Mrs. Bingham is a graduate of Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y. Both enjoy golfing. They are in the hills of Kirk-in-the-Hills, which Mr. Bingham is treasurer.

Also new to the area are Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Peters, who live on Riverside drive. They have four children: Pamela, 13, an eighth grader at Barnum; Douglas, 12, a sixth grader; Gary, 9, a third grader; and Bruce, 5, in the second grade. The boys all attend Beverly school. The Peters are from Brecksville, Ohio. Mr. Peters is a contact engineer with Cadillac Motors and a graduate of Fern college, Cleveland. Mrs. Peters received her bachelor's degree from Syracuse university and her master's from Western Reserve, Cleveland. She taught speech and hearing therapy in Cleveland suburban schools. Tennis and traveling are their hobbies. They were members of a Methodist church in Ohio.

There will be a West Beverly Hills board of directors meeting June 11 at 8 p.m. in the Riverside home of Chet Guilmet.

Mrs. William Ross entertained the executive board of the Hostess group at luncheon in her Beaconsfield home Friday. Group activities for the coming year were discussed. All hostesses in the area will meet May 31 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Glenn Freeman, Sylvan lane.

Mrs. Gerrit Schultz and daughter, Joyce, of Grand Haven, arived Tuesday to spend the holiday with the Maynard Beukemas on Devonshire.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Shank, Warwick, were among area residents attending the SAE dinner dance at the Statler hotel. The affair honors wives of the engineers and is rightly called "ladies night."
