

Eleanor Tucker and John Dixon Wed Saturday at Christ Church

Eleanor Brooke Tucker became the bride of John Britton Dixon in a late afternoon ceremony Saturday at Christ Church Cranbrook. Rev. Robert DeWitt solemnized the double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank H. Boyer of West Greenlich drive, Bloomfield township, and John W. Tucker of Harlow Beach. John is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dixon of Birmingham.

FIVE ATTENDANTS in American beauty velvet frocks styled with empire bodices and waist-length skirts, preceded the bride down the aisle. Septina Henry of Grosse Pointe, cousin of the bride, served as honor maid. Bridesmaids were Lydia Rothman and Judith Peay of Birmingham and Mrs. Peter White Dixon of Grosse Pointe. Five-year-old Joan Clark of Inverness, Ohio, was her cousin flower girl.

Pink carnations were arranged for the bridesmaids' bouquets and combined with American beauty nested in ivy and lilies-of-the-valley.

Best man was Peter White Dixon and guests were seated by Sterling Graham, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, David Krupp of Detroit and Patterson Wall, Russell Layland and William Kinsel Downey of Birmingham.

FOLLOWING the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Boyer hosted a reception in Rotunda Inn. Mrs. Boyer was dressed in blue pea-de-sole accented by a matching hat and orchid corsage.

When the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to Florida, the bride had changed to a brown and fitted cap of alenon lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses in Royal Oak.

You Voted for PEACE ... AND GOT IT!

Now Your Vote Is Needed To Protect It!

- President Eisenhower brought us peace. Ike brought us prosperity, too, without having American boys dying on foreign soil to pay for it! You can put your trust in President Eisenhower.
- But, can you trust the future of your children, your home, your job, your country to the Democratic Party that is advocating weakening of our defense? Can you? You be the judge on November 6th at the polls!
- Every man and woman in Michigan should read this editorial from the Detroit Free Press (October 23) before voting:

Excerpt from editorial in The Detroit Free Press, Oct. 23, 1956.

"By injecting his own ideas and preferences, Premier Bulganin (of Russia) took sides in the campaign. He currently endorsed Adlai Stevenson's position on the issue, if he did not endorse Mr. Stevenson. But any American is entitled to the opinion that he did.

"The President's reply to Bulganin was an equally well-deserved rebuke to Mr. Stevenson.

"The latter invited Russian interest by raising in the heat of a political campaign, an issue which is so closely related to the defense of this Country that it has no proper place in politics.

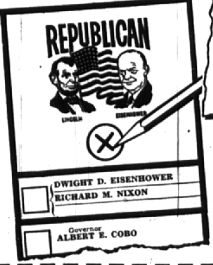

"Bulganin took advantage of the opening which Mr. Stevenson provided him; it was as impetuous as if the Communist leader had offered his advice to the Democratic aspirant about any other phase of United States defense policy, including the size of the Air Force.

"It can hardly be thought that Bulganin's preferences in regard to H-bomb tests would not conform to Russia's interest.

"What Bulganin said in his letter, in effect, was that he would prefer to do business rather than with President Eisenhower.

"The implication of this should not be lost on the American voter. Twice before, at Yalta and Potsdam, the Russians dealt on matters which shaped the course of history to the Red's advantage. They have not done so well with the Eisenhower Administration. It is understandable that the Kremlin would be happier dealing again, with Democrats in charge of our foreign policy."
