Bazaar Proceeds To Benefit Philanthropies

Birmingham chapter of Alpha Xi Delta sorority will hold its 11th annual Christmas bazaar Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m. in the home of Mrs. James J. Hogan, 1274 Westwood. Proceeds will benefit the group's philanthropic activities. Locally, the chapter has established the Grace Ferris library at Oakland County TB Sanitarium and will continue to support it. Assistance is also given to Oakland County crippled children's association, Besant hospital, and Alpha Xi Delta chapters at Michigan colleges.

ON a national level, the sorority contributes to "Save the Children Foundation" which provides school materials for under-equipped schools and layettes for needy babies. On sale at the bazaar will be needlework, baked goods, aprons, children's toys, Christmas decorations and cards, pottery, table decorations and stationery. Mrs. Donald Parker is in charge of serving tea and coffee to the guests. Other committee members from this area are Mrs. Thomas Jensen, Mary Ann Sweeney, Mrs. Michael Carland, Mrs. Glenn Kyrker and Mrs. Jack LaBelle.

Area Subdivision Provides Halloween Fun for Children

Goblins, witches and black cats came out early in Pine Hill. Residents there started the Halloween season Saturday afternoon and children were given noise makers and favors as they formed into a parade line which covered the neighborhood, ending at the corner of Rouge Circle and Pine Hill. A bonfire was waiting for them along with a Halloween supper. Grownups were invited too, bringing the gathering close to the 200 mark. After the bonfire died down trick or treat began.

A Halloween supper party for two-year olds was held last evening at the home of the William Jacksons of Butternut Hill. Two five-year olds, Cathy Jackson and Daphne McParland helped serve. Those sitting at the big table were Barbara Jackson, Mike Dillon, Robbie Lassing, Fish Jennings, Cindy Cole, Billy Potter, Betsy Barnes, Stephen Hagerman, Bobby Mendelsohn. Another Halloween supper party was held at the home of the Marc Hagermans of Butternut Hill. The guests, all four years old, were Greg, Riching, Jimmy Morgan, Debbie Barnes, Nancy McDonald, Diane Kennedy, Doug Hagerman.

Leonard Lane held his Halloween party last night. A parade through the subdivision ended at 108 Paul Taylor home where a decorated table was laden with cider and delicacies for the youngsters. Each child reached into the grab bag of trinkets before making their rounds for trick or treat.

Mr. and Mrs. Rancel Mulvaney celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Oct. 21. It was an afternoon of reminiscing with many old friends who dropped in during the afternoon with their best wishes. A coffee was held at the home of Mrs. William Heaton of Anslow lane for residents of North Adams who attended Christ Church Cranbrook study group. A dessert bridge was carried

We're For YOU, Paul Sutton!

We're not advertising men. We don't know how a political ad should be written. We're not politicians. We don't know how to twist a legislative "record" to make it sound like the "voice of experience."

We're just plain citizens of Oakland County, and we've got to get this off our chests or bust.

WE'RE GETTING PLENTY FED UP!

We're getting fed up to the eye teeth with appeals to special groups by a candidate whose record shows he did nothing for those groups.

We're getting fed up with a candidate who's trying to slide into Washington on Eisenhower's coattails.

We're sick and tired of hearing a candidate identify himself as having "served in the Air Corps in World War II" when he served only 51 days and is not even qualified as a veteran under the GI Bill of Rights.

We're appalled at a man who admits, in debate, that he "knows nothing about foreign relations" and yet who dares to consider himself qualified to deal with world affairs in our national congress.

To put it bluntly . . . WE THINK OAKLAND COUNTY NEEDS A MAN WITH GOOD SOUND COMMON SENSE TO REPRESENT US IN CONGRESS.

WE THINK PAUL SUTTON IS THAT MAN.

Tuesday, November 6 is our big chance . . . our last chance for two more years . . . to send to Washington a mature man of proven stability who will get us the help we need in solving our problems of flood control, proper drainage, street paving, sewers and adequate schools.

We're growing so fast that we're bursting at the seams. We can't meet our problems without Federal help and counsel. We can't afford to send a man to Congress whose legislative record shows that he's voted against the kind of things we need help on in Oakland County.

It's up to folks like us. Forget the politicians and Eisenhower's coattails and all the other fancy business, and remember the phony legislative record of Paul Sutton's opponent. We're the folks who have to live in Oakland County. We're the folks who know what kind of Congressman we need.

It makes no difference what your party affiliations normally are. If you go along with us in feeling that what is best for Oakland County is a strong Congressman who'll really get in there and fight for us in Washington, say it with your vote. Vote for Paul Sutton, Tuesday, November 6th.

PAUL SUTTON, Democrat, for Congress
