BUSINESS BRIEFS

F. Riecks Joins Sutter Products
Frank C. Riecks, 21300 13 Mile road, Birmingham, well-known internationally as a laundry specialist, has joined Sutter Products company, Dearborn, Michigan, as executive vice president. Announcing the appointment, Ray Sutter, president, described it as part of a program of expansion and diversification of present company activities, which include the design and manufacture of foundry machinery.
Riecks recently retired as technical assistant to the manager of foundries for Ford Motor Company after 40 years' service with that firm.
Riecks is a past director and honorary life member of the American Foundrymen's Society, a registered professional engineer in the State of Michigan.

Hanson was formerly with the Tractor and Implement and Special Products Divisions of the Ford Motor Company.

Peoples Column
Commends Writer
For Adlai Letter

To the Editor:
Relative to Mr. Bernard Edleman's letter and the Adlai editorial.
After reading your publication of Mr. Edleman's letter, I find it an outstanding contribution to the public in defending the morals of Adlai Stevenson.
Mr. Edleman, as a citizen of this community, I have never read such an ardent political editorial. Quote, "How Low Must A Candidate Go To Win Votes?"
THOSE VERY words indicate you have no respect for Mr. Stevenson, his policies and the Democratic party. All intelligent people are interested in the facts of both parties as they are stated. However, at this point, I suggest that you apply the "Golden Rule." Myself and most people admit this neglect.

Laidlaw Reports To Texas Air Base

Ensign Duncan McCollom Laidlaw, USNR, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Laidlaw, 704 Tottenham, has reported to the Naval auxiliary air station, Cabanas from the Naval air station, Pensacola, Fla., where he received basic flight training.
Prior to entering service, Laidlaw graduated from Redford high school and received a BS degree from Beloit college, Beloit, Wis. He was commissioned Dec. 7, 1955, from the Naval air station, Pensacola, Fla., where he received basic flight training.

Accidents Total 42 In September

Accident figures released last week by Birmingham Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley revealed that 42 accidents during September were down from the August high of 54. Right of way violations and improper turning were leading accident causes.
Total figures thus far in 1956 show a substantial increase over last year's collision toll, Moxley said.
