

Myrtle Labbitt to Be Guest Speaker At Club's Husbands' Night Meeting

Myrtle Labbitt, CKLV women's editor, who also conducts the show "Kitchen Karousel" on CKLV-TV, will be guest speaker at the Walnut Lake Woman's club Wednesday. The meeting, beginning at 8:00 p.m. in the West Bloomfield township hall, is the club's annual Husbands' Night.

Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. Otto Trzos, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, Mrs. F. W. Hartman, Mrs. Henry Jokela, Mrs. Anna Heiskanen, Mrs. Troy Martin, Mrs. Keith Kennedy, Mrs. Lester John and Mrs. Robert Lockhart.

The weird characters driving up to the Ray Marlin home on South Clunbury road Saturday evening were merely old friends who found they had such a hilarious time dressing up for Halloween last year that they voted to repeat the party.

Hit of the evening was Curtis Presley and his hound dog, portrayed by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Snider.

but "not resting," says Bertram emphatically, as he looks hard at the odd jobs which have been awaiting a leisure moment.

Mrs. Robert Ravensberg was hostess last week at a dessert-bridge in honor of Mrs. Lyle Paris, who soon will be moving to the New York area.

After an evening of fast and fancy bridge and exchange of neighborhood chat, the players presented the honor guest with a farewell gift.

Present at the party were Mrs. William Brunstad, Mrs. Mitchell Middleton, Mrs. Carl Louison, Mrs. John Knoss McKee, Mrs. Ray Martin, Mrs. James Reynolds, Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Dale Brubaker, Mrs. Otto Newman, Mrs. Paul Bergeon, Mrs. William Bunnell, Mrs. Tyler Perkins and Mrs. Jack Werth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon recently moved into their new home on the corner of West Maple and Dartmouth roads from their former home in Detroit.

Mrs. Gordon, assistant principal of the McKenny school, Detroit, is a member of Beta Sigma Phi fellowship, connected with Wayne University's graduate school, and is chairman of the hospitality committee.

One of the founders of the Detroit education association, she entertained the founders recently at their annual get-together with a buffet supper. Herman Browne, superintendent of Detroit public schools was a guest, as was Mrs. Browne.

Mrs. Gordon, retired in June after 22 1/2 years in the laquer testing laboratory of the Kinthod-Mason Co., says his main hobby at present, is getting used to the idea of retirement. He is a Mason and likes to bowl and golf.

Scout Troop B-17 Pancake Supper Held at Lake House

BLOOMFIELD—About 250 people turned out for the boy scout B-17 pancake dinner last week at Kirk-in-the-Hills lake house. Termined "a success" by troop committee, profits from the pancake supper will be used for new camping equipment.

Mothers of scouts who helped with the affair were Mrs. Russell Jokela, Mrs. James Sanborn, Mrs. Kenneth Quick and Mrs. Ken Raymond, all from the Walnut Lake area, and members of the troop committee.

Holiday Decorations Walnut Lake WNFG Topic on Monday

The Walnut Lake Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. Otto Trzos on Walnut Lake road.

Mrs. C. R. Obermyer, a member of the Birmingham branch, just returned from a European trip, will speak on "Christmas in the Home." This subject, ever new and fascinating to the home lover, included a showing of decorations and arrangements to be used during the holidays.

Fea hostesses for the day are Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Kirk Patrick and Mrs. Richard Piersol. Mrs. W. Carl Layman served coffee Monday at the meeting at which all officers and members of the board were present.

Walnut Lake Newcomers Introduced

The Charles G. Ward, Jr., family moved to their new home on Clunbury road in September from Newton, Conn. They have two boys, Charles G. III, 4, and David Downing, 1.

Ward is associated with the Scott Paper Co.

The George C. Wirths of South Clunbury road also have a family of two sons, Randy, 6, enrolled in the first grade, and Rusty, 2, in December. They moved here from Cambridge Village in Southfield township.

Wirth is a designer with the FFC Studio, Detroit, and his long of designing extends into his spare time also. The couple likes gardening, bridge and bowling, and Mrs. Wirth does a great deal of sewing, being busy at present with preparing for their double-level farm-style home overlooking a valley.

Mrs. Charles Reis, Mrs. Donald Ray and son Gregg, sisters and nephew of Mrs. Wirth have visited their new home recently. Mrs. Wirths also spent a week helping with the home-warming. All were from Cincinnati, the couple's home town.

The Howards D. Peacock family moved this summer to their home on Old Orchard road from Allen Park, and the new owners are home with bathing beach and boating privileges.

Peacock, who is associated with Chrysler Corp., likes all sports, with archery and hunting taking precedence now.

West Beverly Get-Out-the-Vote Campaign Carried Out by Association

The Hostess club is cooperating with the West Beverly Hills association to help get out the vote in precinct 7. With over 1900 registered voters, parking and traffic at the poles could be a discouraging factor, but steps are being taken in the hope of alleviating some of the problem.

Block hostesses are telephoning area women and asking them to form car pools and vote between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., thus leaving the early morning and late afternoon hours free for men voters.

Mrs. Chet Guilmet, Riverside, is chairman of transportation committee and anyone in the precinct who needs a ride to the poles should call her.

Under the joint chairmanship of Mrs. Hester Albertson and Mrs. E. P. Ganchan, the Hostess club is providing baby sitters to aid young mothers who must bring small children to the poles. Baby sitters will be on duty at the Southfield fire station on 13 Mile road, precinct 7 voting place, from 9 until the poles close at 8.

Block hostesses are preparing an additional parking space is being prepared and if the weather is inclement, canopy shelter will be provided those unable to get into the station immediately. Block hostesses are prepared to aid voters in every way to get to the poles to vote.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Whittlesey and daughters, Susan and Nancy of Hillcrest entertained Mrs. Whittlesey's cousins, Mrs. and Mrs. William C. Bude, Jr. and four boys, Steven, Ronnie, Bruce and Ned of Detroit.

Mary Dorrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorrough of Beaconsfield, celebrated her 12th birthday with a wicker roast and hay-ride for 16 boys and girls Saturday night, at the ride, guests returned to the Dorroughs' recreation room for cake, ice-cream and dancing.

Mrs. A. V. Welch of Lockport, N. Y. has been a visitor in the home of her son, Mr. Henry W. Welch and his wife, on Devonshire this past week. Mrs. Welch and her daughter-in-law took advantage of the warm Fall weather and made a three day trip to the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Moorcroft are newcomers to the area living in Northchester, after a move from Detroit. Mr. Moorcroft is a general agent for the Midland Mutual Life Insurance Co. The Moorcrofts have a married son and three grandchildren, living in Ray City. They enjoy gardening, are enthusiastic square dancers and were members of a Detroit Presbyterian church.

Valley Woods Grade School Construction Now Underway

Thursday morning, residents saw the start of construction for the Valley Woods elementary school. The same evening, property owners adjacent to the school met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicholson on Belvina trail, where school plans were discussed and pictures of the scale model shown.

The same opportunity will be given all residents at the Berkshire Hills association general meeting in the Birmingham high little theatre Nov. 5, at eight o'clock.

Once a year father and son are split on their school spirit at Ann Arbor. Walter Nyland and son John see each Michigan-Minnesota game and Walter, originally coming from Minnesota has to cheer his home team.

Homeguests of the Nylands are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kessler who moved in Sunday afternoon from Des Moines, Iowa, picking up Mrs. Nyland and continuing on to St. Louis. Mrs. Nyland is the daughter of Mr. Nyland's father.

A family reunion took place Sunday at the William Flajole's home on Broomwood court. A buffet dinner was served to 20 guests. Mrs. Henry Flajole came down from Bay City for the celebration. Our family reunion was the Polidan family to go bird hunting. Fred Polidan took his sons Jerry and Robert to Applegate, for the weekend.

Janice Harrah and the Halversons weekend off with a party Saturday evening for the young set with cokes, records, dancing and a good time.

Fort Wayne, Ind. over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. William O'Rourke and sons, Jim and Bill, of Hillcrest were weekend at the northern Michigan lodge of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Collins, Jr. of Birmingham. The men were eager hunters.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilde returned to their Westworth home from a three-week visit to the Hawaiian islands. The Wildes had over 11,000 miles by the time of their return, visiting all the islands in the group, including Maui, Kauai and Oahu. The Surf Rider hotel at Waikiki beach was their headquarters during their visit.

Of particular interest to them was their visit to the volcano which erupted last year when they saw the lava flows and beaches of black and green sand created by the explosion of hot lava as it flowed into the ocean. The lush growth of orchids, ferns, foliage and other flowers is another unforgettable memory for the Wildes.

Mary Dorrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Dorrough of Beaconsfield, celebrated her 12th birthday with a wicker roast and hay-ride for 16 boys and girls Saturday night, at the ride, guests returned to the Dorroughs' recreation room for cake, ice-cream and dancing.
