Junior High School Set Entertains Classmates at Halloween Parties

Twenty-eight classmates from Bloomfield Hills Junior high school attended the Halloween party at which Marcee Merrill and Lynn Ivey were hostesses.

Atmosphere was provided with constellations, pumpkins and old fashioned lanterns, lining the walls of one of the barns on the Merrill property, where costumes gaudy dunks for apples and attempted to catch a bite now and then of apples suspended from the rafters.

Music for dancing was provided by a juke box and refreshments were served from the table under a canopy of orange and black paper streamers. An appropriate and amusing ghost story related by Marcee's father.

Sandy Brown, Christine Klintworth, and Joyce Holmes were hostesses Saturday evening at a costume party at Christy's home. Guests were 50 classmates from Bloomfield junior high school, who played a game of hide-and-seek with the country theme used in decorations.
