Wing Lake Farm, Inc. Sponsored Halloween Party, Parade Last Night

Wing Lake Farms, Inc., held its annual Halloween party at Wing Lake school last night. Of the 160 guests, approximately half were children for whom the evening was planned.

Beginning at 6:30, Halloween games started the party off. They included pin the tail on the black cat, a haunted house, fish-pond target throws and dancing for teens.

A parade followed with children divided as to ages and sex. There were prizes for the funniest and most original for boys and prettiest and most original for girls. Each child however, received a prize of some kind for his costume.

Following a potluck supper, movie sound cartoons were shown for the kids.

Mr. Robert Fogarty was general chairman. Working with him were Mrs. Edward Byrnes and Mrs. L. F. Brydell, prizes; Mrs. Harold DeRosier, games; Mrs. Clyde Sickles, Mrs. W. D. Sexauer, Mrs. Eugene McDowell, Mrs. Durand Brown and Mrs. John Ziek, food committee. W. T. Kaverly furnished the movies. The entire committee of workers were costumed.

Wing Lake Farms, Inc., will hold the first of a series of three square dances at Bloomfield Hills Country Club Nov. 9, 8:30 to 11:30. The public is invited and tickets may be secured from E. R. Robinson, Indianwood Trail or any of the association's officers. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen James, Wing Lake road have returned from a ten-day motor trip east. They visited in Albany, N. Y., on to Massachusetts, called on friends in Maplewood, N. J., and attended business in New York City.

Attending the Michigan-Minnesota game Saturday at Ann Arbor were Mr. and Mrs. William Everson, of Birmingham. Prior to the game, their group enjoyed a picnic in the arboretum.

It was a rainy two weeks in Florida for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pfeiffer, Thurber road but they enjoyed their visit with Mr. Pfeiffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfeiffer, Clearwater, where they spent nearly a week.

Enroute, they stopped for a couple of days at Gatling, Tenn. While in Florida, they travelled to Key West and then spent a few days with friends in Palm Beach. On their way home, they stopped in Columbus and visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Eino Nurme, of Carey Lane and Mrs. Nurme's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bergmeyer of Island Lake, spent four days last week in New York. While there, they saw "My Fair Lady" and "Most Happy Felicia," visited Long Island friends whom they met on their European trip of last year, did some Christmas shopping and took in the El Morocco and the Copacabana night clubs.

Mrs. James Grison and Mrs. John Roberts, Carey Lane, attended the Viking Ski open house Sunday.

There was a ski fashion show, dance and ski movies narrated by Stein Erickson, former olympic ski champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Keller and three children have been in their new home on Lakewood since August. They moved from Detroit. The Keller children are Grace, 18, attending Ferris Institute; Charlene, 15, attends Bloomfield high school and Mike, 10 a student at Wing Lake school.

Keller is in advertising with Fred M. Randall Co.

Sheila Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone, Wing Lake road, entertained 23 friends at her ninth birthday party Saturday. Following an outdoor "weiner grill," they enjoyed a hayride from Roy's Ranch on Franklin road.

Jimmy McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton W. McDonald, Carey Lane, entertained at a Halloween party following begging, Wednesday.

Games and square dancing were enjoyed by Diane and Dorman Dickerson, Howard and David West, Linda Mustard, Sandra Land, Mate Davies, Pat Nurme and brother, Jerry McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Dickerson were guests of his parents and assisted with the party.
