

Trustees Chosen By Scholarship Fund Association

New officers were chosen by trustees of the Birmingham student loan and scholarship fund association at their fall meeting recently.

Heading the trustees are Dr. C. F. Payton, president; Mrs. Alice Tabor, secretary; J. R. Fortune, Jr., treasurer, and Mrs. Elaine Farnie, vice president.

Trustees serving this coming year are Dr. Payton and Mrs. Dorothy Hilty, representing the alumni; Mrs. Fortune, of the PTA Council; Mrs. Farnie, of the board of education; Mrs. Tabor, of the AAUW; William Duh, honorary member, and Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of schools.

The trustees administer a fund originally set up by Birmingham AAUW for loans to college students. Because no students seek loans, the fund's earnings are used to make $100 scholarship awards to several graduating Birmingham high school seniors annually.

Purse Looted

While she worked at the Hanes and Gretel shop, 185 S. Woodward, Saturday, $18 was stolen from the purse of Mrs. Vera Schey of Detroit. Mrs. Schey, who had left her purse in a back room of the store, described to police the man she thought had stolen the money. Police could find no trace of him.

Hospital Director Forecasts Cancer Detection Center

"Development of a cancer detection center is a future objective," Owen Pinkerman, of Bloomfield Hills, William Beaumont hospital director, told the annual meeting of the South Oakland county unit of the American Cancer society Tuesday night.

Pinkerman stressed that plans are not immediate, but that the hospital's projected plans will seek to provide facilities and space for the Cancer society. Visiting Nurses and other county organizations which offer health care. A cancer detection center, he said, would be equipped with cobalt treatment facilities.

Immediate plans for an addition to the hospital, Pinkerman said, will probably be announced by the beginning of the year.

Ferdale Soroptimists presented the South Oakland cancer society loan closet with a $500 check at the annual meeting.
