

International Tea to Benefit IFYE Program

Norman C. Mindrum of Washington D. C. came to Bloomfield Hills today and will be guest speaker this afternoon from two until five o'clock in the Cranbrook Museum of Art. Sponsored by the Michigan division of Woman's National Farm Youth Exchange program, conference was held in view of expansion of the program in South America.

Proceeds from the tea will go to the Foundation which in the past six years has sent over 300 youth from America to foreign countries and brought over 200 farm youths from other countries as exchangees.

This program, which has done a vast job in promoting world understanding, is a tax-free project with support given by private industries and money raised by the I-H clubs.

Honored guests were Mrs. Russell S. Strickland of Country Club Drive, Bloomfield Hills, director of Delta Gamma foundation; Mrs. F. J. Finkenkauer of North Glenhurst, secretary of province six; Mrs. H. M. Wert of Faculty Row, Bloomfield Hills, alumnae chairman for province six; and Mrs. O'Neill Dillon, national secretary of Delta Gamma.

HE RECENTLY returned from South America where he attended a conference of youth leaders in Latin America which was the first conference of "IFYE". The International Farm Youth Exchange program. Conference was held in view of expansion of the program in South America.

Mr. Mindrum is executive director of the National 4-H Club Foundation in Silver Springs, Md. He was a member of President Eisenhower's Citizens' committee that went to Europe as part of the Crusade for Freedom, where he represented the youth programs of the

WHY HAS BERLITZ ATTRACTED SO MANY PERSONS IN THIS AREA?

1. Some wanted to travel!
2. Some wanted to develop a new skill!
3. Some could READ a language but wanted to SPEAK it (now we can't stop them from talking)
4. Some were linguists but wanted to brush up or explore new fields
5. Some wanted to have fun (they did)
