MRS. RICHARD R. MAGNUSON

Mother Fashions Gown
For Daughter's Wedding

A full length satin gown fashioned by her mother was worn by Carol Jean McClelland for her marriage to Richard R. Magnuson Saturday. The portrait neckline and sleeves were appliqued with chantilly lace, seed pearls and sequins. A plateau headpiece of satin and lace held in place her fingertip veil. She carried amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel officiated at the 7:30 p.m. double-ring rites in the First Methodist church before 200 wedding guests. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Drayton McClelland, Sr., of Quanton road, Bloomfield Hills. Richard, of St. Clair Shores, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Magnuson of Hazel Park.

ATTENDING the bride was Alice Harabedian as maid of honor, Mary Mullin, Janice McCoy and Mrs. Drayton McClelland, sister-in-law of the bride.

They wore rust velvet princess frocks trimmed with satin which fell from the back in floating streamers. They had matching headpieces with tiny veils and carried gold mums.

Irvin Magnuson was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Charles Emery, Jr., Charles Gage and Drayton McClelland, Jr., brother of the bride.

CAROL's mother wore a street length gown of peau de soie in monaco blue and Mrs. Magnuson was in a royal blue street length gown. They had beige and yellow cybidium orchids, respectively.

AFTER a two-week honeymoon in Florida the couple will make their home in St. Clair Shores.
