

Localites Plan to Attend DAC Thanksgiving Week Festivities

Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the Detroit Athletic club, along with Detroit and Grosse Pointe members, will have a special Thanksgiving week dinner-dance-floor show fiesta at the downtown club. The six evenings from Nov. 19 through the 24th, including Thanksgiving, were chosen particularly by the entertainment committee as a bow to November's national holiday.

Each of the party evenings will start at 7 o'clock, with many groups gathering first for cocktails in the lounge.

ENTERTAINMENT time at 9:30 p.m. will present the show stars who will be Florian Zaback, violinist with a wide repertoire of popular music, and Margarita Sierra, songstress from Spain, who injects rhythmic casten beats throughout her singing for change of pace and color.

A few of those with early reservations for one or another evening are the Ralph E. Zimmermanns, the W. J. Blacks, the William S. Speigels and the William J. Riley.

DAC's Election Night buffet dinner and open house brought a throng to the club to hear the national election returns via television and radio receivers arranged throughout the rooms.

Buffet tables in the Pontchartrain room were stocked throughout the evening with delectable viands, and between times there was dancing. Groups were seated at tables in the Georgian and main dining rooms.

FROM Birmingham - Bloomfield came Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Ahlers, the Karl Pfeiffers and the Reider Thorsens, in a sixsome.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Restrick were hosts to their sons and daughters-in-law, the William C. Restricks, Jr. and the Thomas F. Restricks.

The Francis W. Hacketts entertained the Ronald Touscans of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Goodes' guests were the Reginald Bennetts, Mr. and Mrs. Percy K. Loud had a foursome, and at another table were the John L. McQuigans.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD H. HELGESON

Richard Helgeson Claims Bride

Richard Hollister Helgeson claimed Donna Jean Montgomery as his bride in a double-ring ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal cathedral. The Rev. John J. Weaver officiated at the October rites.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Montgomery of Casey, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Angus G. Helgeson of Bradway, Bloomfield township.

Donna's bridal gown of alenore lace silk illusion was a gift from her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Howe of Casey, Ill. Tiny diadems of opalescent paillettes and pearls held in place her veil of silk illusion. To complete the picture she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white orchids.

The bride's only attendant, her college roommate, Nancy Wagner, was in a pink brocaded gown,

JOAN NELSON

Troth Reveals Altar Date

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne E. Nelson of Huntington Woods announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Elaine, to Alden J. Richter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Richter, 6915 Valley Spring drive, Birmingham.

Joan attended the University of Detroit. Alden is a graduate of Michigan State university and is affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi and Pi Alpha Mu. Both are employed at Chamberlain Real Estate company, Joan as closing secretary and Alden as sales manager.

An April 27th wedding date is set at St. Mary's church, Royal Oak.

Lebow TWINS

set the pace

Lebow has designed a new model to make your suits do something extra for you—and to get the nod of feminine approval.

"The Taylor" Double Breasted has an air of distinction—adds a degree of well being—achieves a look women enjoy.

See the minute peak lapel, the vertical waistline, the thin look.

"The Meurice" Peak is the twin model to give new flavor to the single breasted suit—peaked simply and inconspicuously, but different enough too for you to know it's in good 1956 fashion.

For a refreshing change of pace, try both Lebow twins.

FROM $125.00

Dress right . . . you can't afford not to.
