

Six Re-Elected
Members of Board
Of Kingswood

CRANBROOK—After the recent annual meeting of the board of directors of Kingswood School Cranbrook, headmistress Marion Goodale has announced the re-election of six board members, all Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills residents. Continuing to serve as chairman will be Carl O. Barton, as vice chairman, Mrs. William T. Coissett, as secretary, Mrs. Edward Lechen, and as treasurer, Ruth K. Shouley, Jr. Two members-at-large chosen to serve another term are Mrs. Nell C. McMath and Graham John Graham.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Yarmouth Road Friends Hold Annual Football Get-Together

The annual football party get-together of a group of Villagers living on Yarmouth road, took place Saturday. Driving to Ann Arbor, the group picnicked at the farm of the senior Fred Mathias on the outskirts of the Michigan-Illinois game. Back to the Village, they were entertained at cocktails and dinner at the home of the John Emmetta in the group were the Henry Schlichters, Charles Duryea, Robert ing stage productions, among them "Mr. Wonderful," and "Damm Yankee."

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Van Fleet of Cranbrook road attended the gala opera opening in Detroit, with a group of friends, and had dinner prior to the event at the Detroit Athletic Club with Mr. and Mrs. Reid Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. John French.
Mrs. S. J. Gillen of Cheyenne Cross road drove her daughter Buffy and Sue De Nador to Miami University at Oxford, Ohio where the girls spent the weekend with Sue's sister Claire who attends the University. The DeNador girls are the daughters of Mrs. Margaret De Nador of Yarmouth road.
Mrs. Martin Koutere entertained the St. Mary's Guild at a luncheon in her home on Happ Cross road yesterday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Taggart, Mrs. Frank Uhas and Mrs. Lee McTigue. Mrs. C. R. Obermeyer demonstrated how to make Christmas arrangements for the home.

Former residents of Birmingham, now living at Glenn Lakes, Mich. are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brown who have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Kullback of Wadlington road within the last week.
Mrs. Richard A. Schroeter of Gary road entertained a group of friends at a luncheon at her home recently. Among those present were Mrs. George Cassidy, Mrs. Henry Mok, Mrs. Robert McElligann, Mrs. Raymond Duffy, Mrs. Wainey Collins, Mrs. James Tomison and Mrs. Charles Payne.

Janie Schroeter recently celebrated her 11th birthday and it was the occasion to have a group of her sixth grade classmates at St. Hugo's to a dinner party in her home. Color theme of the party was just what it should have been for an 11-year-old, pretty and pink.
The table was decorated with a centerpiece of pink carnations and white mums, and pink napery cast their light on the smiling faces of the young guests, Mary Jo Elwood, Trish Shannon, Nancy Arki, the Mahony twins, Margaret and Kathleen, Susan Bowers and Janie's sister Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Straight of Highway spent last week in New York on a combined business and pleasure trip.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burgis of Burning Bush road have returned from the East where they traveled to New Haven, Conn. to visit their son Jack, a freshman at Yale. The occasion being "Parents Weekend," it was a big treat for Mr. Burgis to see the familiar campus as Yale was his alma mater. Jack graduated from Cranbrook last June.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wernig of Washington road spent a few days recently visiting in and around New York City. The Wernigs visited Mrs. Wernig's father, William M. Currie of Long Island while there and of Mr. Wernig's aunt Mrs. Edward Penderton of New York City. The Wernigs saw some of the lead-

North Adams Subdivisions
Welcome Many Newcomers

In the last few months many new residents have moved into the North Adams area. In Hickory Heights subdivision, the Howard Pridmore, formerly of St. Clair Shores, are just getting settled in their new home on Far Hill drive.
Mr. Pridmore is an attorney with the Chrysler Corporation and enjoys golf. Furniture refinishing is the family's favorite hobby.
Also in Hickory Heights are the D. D. Albers of Tarry Lane, formerly of Birmingham. They have a new member, William Deen, two months old, in their household. Mr. Albers is with Chrysler Corp. in the planning department. The Albers are avid football fans.
Newcomers to Charming Cross Estates are the William Askews of Haddington Lane formerly of Oak Park. They have three sons, Bill, 3, Lloyd, 5, Jim, 3. The two older boys attend Adams school. Mr. Askew is sales representative with Park Chemical Co., Detroit. Landscaping will have top priority on their hobby list for the coming year.
The Herbert Hornings, former residents of Clifford, Mich., are enjoying their new home on Charming Cross road. Their children are Susan, 10, a student at Baker Junior High, Dave, 10, attending Troy 2, Bill, 8, a pupil at Smith, and Sandra, 3. Mr. Gudney is affiliated with Allegheny-Ludlum Steel Co., Ferndale. The Gudneys are formerly of Royal Oak.

The William Heaton of Anslow Lane have recently returned from a week in New York. While there they made their headquarters at the Plaza and enjoyed many trips through the shops. They also found time to see "My Fair Lady" and the "Most Happy Fellow," before returning home.
The Carroll Porters of Juniper Court are looking forward to the arrival of the Howard Seals of Richmond, Va., who will be their houseguests this week. The Porters and Seals were neighbors before the Porters were transferred here several months ago.
Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.
