

Mrs. William Morgan Sees Four Operas in Two Days

Last weekend was a pleasantly busy one for Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor. Mrs. Morgan has been busy with publicity for a series of opera performances being presented at the Masonic Temple, Detroit, for the benefit of Birmingham school district children.

These operas were performed by members of the New York City Opera company and sponsored by the Grand Opera association of Detroit, of which Mrs. Morgan is a member. Saturday afternoon, two busloads of boys and girls attended a performance of "Carmen." That evening, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and daughter Pamela, attended the performance of "La Boheme." At Sunday's matinee, Mrs. Morgan again was present when the players presented "Suzannah," the first opera written by an American since George Gerhart's "Porgy and Bess." She concluded her musical weekend Sunday evening by seeing "La Traviata."

Recent newcomers to Graefield terraces are Mr. and Mrs. John Houck who moved into their 1736 Graefield road apartment from Royal Oak, Mich. They have a daughter, Rene, 5, who attends Pembroke kindergarten, and Charles, 3. Mrs. Houck attended Barry college in Miami Shores, Fla. and Mr. Houck is a graduate of San Jose State College, Cal. He is associated with the National Lock Co. Mrs. Houck is a member of the League of Women Voters, while Mr. Houck belongs to Knights of Columbus and is a member of the Notre Dame Club. Both enjoy golf and bridge.

Young Tony Hedgecock was honored on his sixth birthday recently with a luncheon party at which six of his friends were present. Attending were David Durke, Jimmy Carey, Stevie Cleary, Bruce Hayward, David Cady and Chuck Greene. Tony is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Anson Hedgecock of Witherbee road, Troyton. Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, Jr. of Witherbee road, Troyton, spent last weekend at the vacation home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason at Indian River, Mich. While there, several members of the party indulged in extensive partridge hunting, at which Mr. Ward earned the title of champion.

Graefield Terraces welcomed newcomers again last week when Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pickard and son, Randy, 9 months old, moved here from Evanston, Ill. Mr. Pickard, a Williams College graduate, is special sales representative for A. H. Dick Co. Mrs. Pickard graduated from Northwestern University and is a member of the Junior League. Both are tennis enthusiasts and belong to the Birmingham Tennis Club. Mr. and Mrs. Pickard enjoy playing bridge and also list furniture refinishing as their major hobby.

A variety of talents were displayed Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross of Witherbee road, Troyton, when they entertained several neighborhood couples for an evening of charades.

Visiting Nurse Services Outlined At Publicity Tea

Mrs. Joseph M. Welt of Detroit and Walnut Lake outlined services provided by the Visiting Nurse Association at a tea Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Forrest Dordill of Bloomfield Hills.

She is past president of Detroit Council on Community Nursing and past chairman of tribute committee of Detroit Community Fund. Stressing the fact that visiting nurse services are available to everyone who can pay the fee and those who can not, Mrs. Welt also pointed out the help a nurse can give to a new mother just home from the hospital. Whether the illness is acute or chronic, the visiting nurse will give hourly service in the home, she stated.

Mrs. Vene G. Perry of Fairfax avenue and Mrs. Bernard F. Zinn of Dorchester street, were chairmen of the publicity tea, given by the Visiting Nurse Association committee of Southern Oakland county. The committee is well represented by members from the Birmingham area.
