Jarl Andeer Sails This Week
For Month's Visit to Sweden

Aboard the S.S. United States when she sailed from New York City this week was Jarl Andeer who will stop off in Germany before going to Sweden to visit his brother and three sisters, and then on to England. He expects to be gone a month.

This is by no means a new experience for Mr. Andeer, as this trip will mark his third crossing. His first trip to Sweden was with his parents when a small child. When still a boy, he returned to this country to complete his education and attend law school.

The Marvin Cline of Stellmar drive last week celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at Rotunda Inn with their three children Sue, Laura and Bobby.

George Williams of Marimor drive was recently installed Grand Knight of St. Francis of Assisi, Birmingham Council 3849 of the Knights of Columbus. Mr. Williams served as program chairman for the Birmingham group and previously was active with the Gabriel Richard council in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace S. Cowan of East Tawas are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, the James Blackmans of Stellmar drive, and plan to remain until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Combining business with pleasure, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Wood of Marimor drive left for West

West Beverly
Area's Christmas Lighting Contest Is Well Underway

Mrs. James W. Shank, West Beverly Garden club president, announces the club's Christmas lighting contest project well under way.

The contest in a series of bridges sponsored by the club for the purpose of raising prize money for the last evening at the Martin Hoover home on Riverside. Club members report all parties well attended and successful.

A committee composed of Mrs. Harold Reasner, Mrs. Edmond W. Chacever and Mrs. Arthur L. Lane has been appointed to contact judges for the contest and contact who planned and is hoped all area residents will be stimulated to light their homes in gala Christmas fashion.

This week, a number of local club members will be attending the International tea, sponsored by the Michigan Women's Farm and Garden club, at Cranbrook art museum.

Tuesday, the hostess club will meet in the home of Mrs. Chet Guilmet, 19653 Riverside, Mrs. Robert E. Johnson will give a report on the Southfield boys club, its organization and purpose, and Mrs. Martin Hoover will report for her Christmas charity committee. Co-hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. H. Johnson and Mrs. H. M. Goodhue.

Block hostesses who acted as reporters at the polls last week, spent a busy time during some hours of voting and some found it necessary to remain over their scheduled time periods to help the sitters who followed them.

To aid co-workers in amusing the large group of youngsters awaiting their parents voting turn, Mrs. T. E. Husted rushed home at the end of her sitting hour, gathered up toys and cookies and arranged for their delivery to the poll nursery.

Mrs. R. F. Ganchan hopes voters in the next election will be better informed as to their correct precinct, for after holding one very small baby for almost an hour, the baby's young mother learned she was in the wrong precinct.

The Contemporary Club will meet Monday in the home of Mrs. Russell Howry, 16066 Dunblaine. Mrs. Ludwig Ende will be co-hostess for the meeting, beginning at one o'clock, and Mrs. E. B. Hall will review "Animals and Other People" by Louis Bromfield. Margo Jarrard of Beverly road will assist Calla Reasner and Mary Brad Stephenson on their joint-hostess committee.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McMillan, who formerly lived on Beverly,
