

New Club Formed In Adams Village

The Adams Village club, which is to be part of the home demonstration program conducted by the extension service of Michigan State University, was organized Monday evening.

Members hope to learn, in workshops, more about clothing and textiles, foods and nutrition, family life and home furnishings. A project the club is considering for the future is to provide physical help with retarded children in the schools.

Elected chairman of the group was Mrs. J. H. Mikessel, at whose home on Haynes street the meeting was held. Vice-chairman is Mrs. Bruce Young; secretary, Mrs. John B. Tabb; and treasurer, Mrs. Ernest Brackin.

Publicity is to be handled by Mrs. John F. Hamilton. Mrs. Leo Tinkey is health and safety leader

Musicateers Elect Officers

First meeting of the Musicateers was Sunday in the home of Melody Murphy, with twelve members present.

Karen Jarvis was elected president of the group and Melody Murphy is vice-president. Secretary is Cathy Quinn and treasurer is Janis Masters and hospitality chairman, Janet Patterson.

Program for the meeting included piano solos by Melody Murphy, Marvia Schyler and Cathy Quinn. Mrs. Donald Patterson is leader of the Musicateers with Mrs. Martin Masters as co-leader.

and lesson leader is Mrs. J. P. Grantham. Mrs. M. A. Petersen is flower fund chairman.

Mrs. Mary A. Hickson of the extension service will explain more about the purpose and operations of the club at a meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Petersen, 1584 Bowers.
