

Churches

Rev. John Rose, minister of the church, will preside at the 7:45 p.m. service, at which the Rev. Ralph H. Read, pastor of North Congregational Church, will be speaker.

LUTHERANS will mark the day at three area churches. Rev. Theodore Wuggazer will speak on the topic, "Thank God," at 9 a.m. services tomorrow at Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 1800 W. Maple, Birmingham. The church's three choirs will join in the observance.

OUR SHEPHERD Lutheran church, East 14 Mile and Melton, has scheduled a festival service tomorrow at 11 a.m. The day's offering will be divided equally between the Lutheran Children's Friend society and Lutheran World Relief.

Worshippers at Our Shepherd church will bring with them clothing for overseas distress areas. Rev. H. G. Allwardt's sermon will be "Thanks Be to God," and there will be special music by the choir and a tenor solo by Carl Zehnder.

AT CHRIST church, Ten Mile road near Southfield, Thanksgiving services will begin at 11:15 a.m., and the Rev. G. M. Knoch's sermon theme will be "What Shall We Thank God For in Our Day?"

AT FIRST CHURCH of Christ, Scientist, 191 N. Chester street, Birmingham, Thanksgiving Day services will be held at 9:45 and 11:30 a.m. A lesson-sermon entitled "Thanksgiving" will emphasize the importance of living one's gratitude to God.

The church's infants' room, at 355 E. Maple, will be open at 9:30 and 11:15 a.m.

THANKSGIVING

is a day to stop and think about a lot of things that we take for granted the rest of the year.

Such things as the blessing of freedom... for us not a distant hope, but an ever-present reality. On Thanksgiving Day, let us humbly pray in gratitude to Almighty God for all that we have, all that we are, all that we can hope to be.
