Local Residents Entertain Families for Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving dinner will climax an event-filled weekend planned at the home of the Robert R. Distlers on Brookdown road, Troyton Manor. Besides daughter Debby, they have as house guests Mrs. Distler's parents Mr. and Mrs. James C. McKenna who motored here from Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Mrs. McKenna, a garden enthusiast, is looking forward to viewing the various mails at Northland Center along with a little Christmas shopping. The couples are also anticipating an enjoyable evening at Cinerama.

More out-of-towners here for the holiday weekend are Mr. and Mrs. Karl Penninger who flew here from New York City to visit their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penninger and children Peggy, 2, and William, 7 months old of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor.

The trip was doubly nice for the senior Mr. Penninger because it was the first time he had seen his new grandson. He hopes to be able to get down to see the Santa Claus parade.

Mrs. Granville Barker of 1657 Graefield road was a hostess to one of the local bridge groups recently. Seated at the two tables were Mrs. Robert Distler, Mrs. Robert Friesner, Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Clarence Penninger, Mrs. Elsworth Fish and Mrs. Frank Clark. Dessert and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Hedgecock of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor welcomed as house guests Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brennan from Cadillac, Mich. While here, the Brens were able to accomplish quite a bit of Christmas gift buying at Northland Center. They also enjoyed Cinerama.

Miss Wealtha Ann Hedgecock is expected home this weekend by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Anson Hedgecock. Wealtha is a junior at Central Michigan college where she is majoring in Home Economics. She will return to school Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brunk of Mansfield, Ohio spent the weekend with the Granville Barkers of Graefield road. Other than an evening at Cinerama the weekend was spent relaxing and catching up on the local news from Mansfield, the Barkers' former home.

It has been a busy week at the Robert Gormans' home on Brookdown road. They started off their social activities by entertaining their bridge group on Saturday evening.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davey, Mr. and Mrs. Worthy Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gara. At the end of the bridge session dessert and coffee were served.

Next on the agenda, Mrs. Gorman along with Mrs. Al Krueger also of Brookdown road entertained in her home 11 neighbors and 11 children at a combined coffee-kitch-baby shower honoring Mrs. Paul O'Kelly.

The Gormans also welcome Mrs. Gorman's mother, Mrs. Margaret E. Hoggins of Cleveland Ohio who is here to spend the holiday with her grandchildren Nancy, 3, and Michael, 17 month old.

Whitlatch Directs Opera at Denison

Robert Whitlatch, was director and stage manager of Puccini's grand opera, "Sister Angelica," presented by the Denison university opera workshop last weekend. A senior at the Granville, Ohio, and a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity, Robert has played in many of the school's dramatic and musical productions. The son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whitlatch, 707 Lakeview, Birmingham, he has been on the dean's list for three years. He's a member of University Players and Musicians and Denison Theatre Arts honorary society.

The Saunders home was gayly decorated with balloons and a zoo motif accented the cake. The little guests who joined in on pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey and drop-the-clothespins-in-the-box were Nancy Gorman, Heidi Hammond, Nancy Krueger, Martha and Webb Barnes, Patsy, Pam and Barbie Trevillian and Linda Martin.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, hirths, parties are all news—all the society editor about them.
