

Nancy Ann Gilliam Is Saturday Bride

Nancy Ann Gilliam and Robert Dean Horton exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday evening in Grace Lutheran church, Toledo, Ohio. Three hundred guests witnessed the ceremony and were greeted at a reception in the church parlors.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell D. Gilliam, former Birmingham residents, who moved to Toledo five years ago, and are now back in Michigan, living in Oak Park. The Glen F. Hortons of Toledo are parents of the groom.

NANCY'S wedding gown was fashioned of white Italian silk Alencon lace, embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins, accented the gown's scooped neckline.

A tiara of iridescent sequins and brilliant sequins, the bride's fingertip length silk illusion veil and completing her ensemble was a bouquet of white and pink gladioli.

Four attendants in pink tulle chiffon over taffeta frocks preceded the bride down the aisle. The dresses were designed with cap sleeved, shirred bodices and waltz length skirts.

Maid of honor Margaret Gilliam was distinguished by her head piece and bouquet of pink and white Fuji mums. Floral arrangements of pink Fuji mums were carried by the bridesmaids, Mrs. Edward M. Fry, sister of the groom, and Jane Shultz of Toledo and Virginia Lee Owens of Birmingham.

EDWARD M. FRY served as best man and guests were seated by the groom's fraternity brothers, John Koester, Donald Cherry and Donald Hummer.

Mrs. Gilliam was gowning in dusty rose lace over taffeta with a matching feathered hat. A beige satin ensemble was the choice of the mother of the groom.

Nancy's going away costume was a periwinkle blue suit complemented by a black satin hat. She and her husband are on a northern Michigan wedding trip and will make their home in Toledo.
