

Three Foxcroft Couples Return From Month Vacation in Florida

Just returned from Casey Key, Fla. are Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wolfston and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fleming. They spent most of the vacation month swimming and fishing. There was a bit of excitement when Mrs. Fleming landed a rabbit fish which is considered a rare catch.

The group enjoyed a visit to Sarasota one Sunday where they watched the staging of Sailor's Circus on Dave Garraway's TV show.

Mrs. Fleming reports their daughter Mike will be home from Michigan State University with a classmate to spend the long Thanksgiving weekend.

Home from the University of Michigan for the holiday weekend is Ellen Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lewis of West Surrey. The Lewises have invited friends from Birmingham for Thanksgiving with a party at Kenna Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Haines is home from Ferris Institute. The family plan to celebrate the Haines' 30th wedding anniversary on Saturday, which they will see "The Seven Wonders of the World."

Coming home this evening for Thanksgiving with the family is Judy Maier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Maier. Judy is a sophomore at Western Michigan college.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Falberg of Lantern Lane will have their sons and grandchildren from Birmingham at holiday guests. They are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Falberg and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Falberg.

Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Campbell and daughter Vicki, will leave today for Oshtemo, Mich. where they will spend the weekend with Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hill.

From Westwood Manor Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Simacek and daughter, Diane will spend Thanksgiving day in Pontiac at the home of their laughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James D. McKay, Jr. Residents of Westwood Manor met last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Liddell to discuss the forming of an association.

Linda Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Barten celebrated her seventh birthday Saturday. A three tier cake with pink roses centered the birthday table.

Guests were Amy Edwards, Susan Reilly, Betty Seibert, Patty Smith of Northburg, Debbie Dugan, Mary Jane Kramer, Susan Rumsey, Linda Beukema, Paula Cole, Abbie Hyde, Patty Holmes, Debbie Hickson, Laurel Seibins, Tia and Diane Lisey and Elinor Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Popovich enjoyed an evening of visiting and cards (mostly visiting) recently when they entertained a group of former school friends from Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. W. Barton and Dr. and Mrs. W. W. MacGregor have returned from Indian River, Mich. where Dr. MacGregor spent deer hunting and the rest of the party enjoyed a visit with the Bartons' son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barton and children, Ricky, Donna and Dorothy. The Fred Bartons will be in Foxcroft for Thanksgiving dinner with the Barton family.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gough entertained their pinocle club in their new home on East Surrey. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed O'Hare, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ballard, and Mr. and Mrs. William Albert.

WRAPPING PRIZES for Bloomfield Farms association card party are Mrs. Robert K. McKenzie (left), Mrs. Arthur Bechtold, Mrs. George Wirth and general chairman Mrs. George Brundrett. The party, at West Bloomfield town hall, Nov. 27, is this newly-formed association's first social event.

Bloomfield Farms Women Plan Association Card Party

Women of the Bloomfield Farms property owners association are working on plans for an evening of cards, the group's first social venture. This party will be held at West Bloomfield township hall on Orchard Lake road at 8:00 p.m. Nov. 27.

From reports of ticket sales, the party will draw a large and enthusiastic representation of the association families as the October meeting day.

In charge of the project is social chairman Mrs. George A. Brundrett. Tickets are being sold by Mrs. George North and Mrs. Charles Ward, with the help of other committee members.

Mrs. Walter Meeds and Mrs. John Payne are responsible for refreshments, and Mrs. Robert McKenzie cards and tables. Mrs. Ian Beaton, Mrs. Arthur Bechtold and Mrs. Harry White are working on decorations and prizes.

Setting the theme of the decorations is a stork, in keeping with the newness of the association activities. Any resident interested who has not been contacted is asked to call one of the above committee members.

Men elected to the board of directors of the association at its first general meeting were Reginald Rice, Alfons Monas, Edward Kolodick, William Brunsdick, John Payne, Wendell Moore and John Rehard.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dingwall of Lakeshire drive were reluctant to part with their houseguest, Agnes Noble, last week. Agnes, niece of the Dingwalls, wound up her two months' visit at their home and sailed from New York Thursday aboard the Queen Mary.

Her home is in Fraserburgh, Scotland, in Aberdeenshire. She left there three months ago on vacation, traveling first to Vancouver, where she visited relatives in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The Martin Laiturs are delighted over the arrival of their third grandchild, small Alison Marie Monteen. Alison was born at the Zieger Osteopathic hospital Nov. 8, weighing eight lbs., two ozs.

Sisters Cynthia Kaye and Rene

Sharon have been staying at the Laitur home on East Dartmoor for the last two weeks. They will remain their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Monteen, at Thanksgiving dinner at the home of their paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Monteen. The Laiturs will be dinner guests also.

Ward, with the help of other committee members.

Among the young people in the superb (circa Scenicum show held at Birmingham High school last week were Sharon Gibson, Martha Kocinen, Pat MacLennan, Estella Quick, Rachel Rice, Dawn Kernes, Judy Sandstrom, Barbara Shain and Judy Guest.

Margaret Roberts, Laura Szymik, Carol Trzes, Sally Hanson and Mary Roberts were also performers in the many acts.

These girls were in the choir and glee club numbers too, as were Kay Graber, Virginia Irwin, Harvey Sellner, Judy Burton, Paul Camp, Rosiland Latham, Nancy Layman, Karen Maddren and Karen Weaver. Tamara Rademoch, Pamela Parkin and Ken Rice played in the band.

Just returned from Florida sunshine are Mrs. Clifford Williams and Mrs. Hamilton, both residents of Eastman road. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Hamilton drove off on their vacation trip Nov. 3, and on the way south stopped in Chattanooga, Tenn., to visit relatives of Mrs. Hamilton.

From Chattanooga they drove to Bradenton, Fla. There they visited the Hoy family, former Walnut Lakers who gave up their home here for year round Florida living four years ago.

After their Bradenton stop, the travelers left the Gulf coast for Miami, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Denuccio.

The Ivan Hills of West Dartmoor are still feeling a glow from the surprise visit of son Thomas who has just finished his paratroop school training at Fort Camp-

Roumanian Christmas Bazaar

Mrs. A. B. Bulik of 13 Mile road is general chairman of the first Christmas bazaar of the Aroy chapter of the St. George Roumanian Orthodox Cathedral on November 24 and 25 at the church hall, Russell and E. Hancock ave.

The theme of the bazaar will be "Roumanian Christmas" and specific articles representative of the Roumanian nationality groups will be sold, such as aprons, rag dolls, Roumanian long-playing records, Christmas centerpieces, old world delicacies, cookies and pastries. Proceeds will go toward the building fund for a new cathedral.

The St. George Aroy chapter is part of the national organization of the American Roumanian Orthodox youth and was started seven years ago to acquaint and unify the youth of the Roumanian Orthodox of this country with their church and faith. Orthodox was secularly recognized by 19 states of the Union as their fourth major faith, Michigan being one of them.

At a morning coffee at the Marvin Cline home on Stelliar drive, members of Mrs. Fred Nosdala's social committee discussed plans for post-holiday and early spring activities including neighborhood get-acquainted news and card parties.

Committee and co-chairmen Mrs. Maurice Weiner, Mrs. Marvin Cline, Mrs. A. P. Welsh, Mrs. Clifford Wright, Mrs. A. J. Light and Mrs. Charles Young will be assisted by Mrs. Dallas Sprinkle, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Upton Braunack, Mrs. Philip Diesel and Mrs. Paul McGarity.

An attractive centerpiece of pink carnations and white mums and a birthday cake decorated with pink roses enhanced the table setting at Mrs. Paul Tishken's birthday luncheon Friday at her home on Wendbrook drive.

Extending felicitations and good wishes were Mrs. Tishken's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Richard T. Tishken and grandson John, Mrs. Ray Hammons and Mrs. Rubie Smith of Detroit and Mrs. Eric Ryser of Mt. Clemens.

The Philip Diesels of Stelliar drive and daughter and son-in-law,
