East Beverly Area Muscular Dystrophy Drive on Nov. 29

EAST BEVERLY — On Nov. 29 a convener for muscular dystrophy will call at East Beverly homes to ask for a donation. According to Richard Mearns, a general chairman for this area, there are several reasons for a separate campaign for this cause.

About 75 per cent of the funds collected in a prescribed area go to the national organization for medical research and 25 per cent is used locally. In the Detroit metropolitan area there are 200 known cases, of which 32 are in Oakland county.

This particular area is from 14 to 13 miles and southfield to Greenfield. The area chairman are Mrs. Charles J. Auburn, Mrs. Wesley Olds of Buckingham, Mrs. Daniel Rempel of Marguerite, Mrs. Richard Wind of Beechwood, and Mrs. Edward Crona of Sheridan.

West Beverly Judges Named for Area's Christmas Lighting Contest
