

South Oakland Concert Presents Opera Stars

South Oakland County Community Concerts association will present two leading concert and opera stars on their second program Dec. 4, at 8:15 p.m. in the Royal Oak Donor high school auditorium. Heidi Krall, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, and Jim Hawthorne, tenor from the New York City Center Opera, will share the program, singing solos and duets.

A luminous new prima donna, Heidi Krall has ascended to the heights of grand opera very rapidly since her early days in the chorus of "Oklahoma." She is an American, of Swiss descent, born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio. It was her memorable debut in Menotti's opera, "The Consul," that brought her a contract to sing at the "Met." After winning the Opera Auditions of the Air, she made her debut in "Carmen" in 1943. She now appears in twelve different roles. Her hobby is stamp collecting which she shares with her 10 year old daughter, Susie.

JIM HAWTHORNE, the dashing tenor of grand opera, concerts, television and radio is a native of Lancashire, England, but grew up in Peterborough, Ont. He traces his dedication to a musical career to his early days as an usher at Peterborough's annual series of Community Concerts. When his musical talent became established, and after serving in the Royal Canadian Navy, which he joined at age 17, he went to New York in search of opportunities.

After scoring success in Broadway musicals, "Sweethearts" and "Suez Canal," Jim turned to the study of grand opera and made his debut at the New York Center opera in the role of Narraboth in "Salome." His repertoire also includes "Carmen," "Egmont," "Madama Butterfly," "Tosca" and "La Boheme." Hawthorne has been extremely successful in television, appearing on "Omnibus" and "Voice of Firestone," and has been soloist with many of the principal symphony orchestras and in concert recitals.
