Breakfast Set for Martha Cook Alums

Gals who lived in Martha Cook dormitory while students at the University of Michigan have a very active alumnae association in this area. Among several events they plan annually is a Christmas breakfast. This year it'll be at 12:30 p.m. Dec. 8 at the Stockholm, Detroit. Mrs. R. Tyler Perkins, Jr., 4935 S. Clunbury, is taking reservations until Tuesday.

MRS. ANDREW J. ATKINS

Barbara Anne Clark Weds Andrew Atkins

Barbara Anne Clark and Andrew J. Atkins exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday afternoon in Community Church Congregational, Lathrup, before Rev. John D. Rose. Following the rites, a buffet-dinner reception for the 150 guests was given in the church's fellowship hall.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Erwin O. Clark of East California street, Lathrup. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Atkins of Millersburg, Mich.

BARBARA carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds and white roses with her ballerina length bridal gown of rose point lace, designed with a sashina neckline and long sleeves. A taffeta bow and streamers trimmed the back of the gown and the bouffant skirt featured a scalloped hemline. Her elbow length veil cascaded from a pearl tiara.

Rose taffeta was fashioned into a ballerina length gown for the maid of honor, Suzanne LaBarge of Lathrup Village. Attending the princess lines of the frock was a bubble bow. Completing her costume was a matching cap of nylon and velvet and a colonial bouquet of Eisenhower carnations, white daisies and mums.

IN BLUE FROCKS, styled identically to the honor maids, were the bridesmaids, Patricia Thompson of Lathrup and Norma Plank of Boyne City. Blue carnations, daisies and mums were combined for their bouquets.

Best man was Lowell Rowe of Milford and guests were seated by the bride's brother, Russell Clark, and Donald Leverenz of Detroit. Mrs. Clark chose a Dior blue gown with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding day. The mother of the groom wore a navy blue ensemble trimmed in pink. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

The newlyweds will make their home in Onaway, Mich., when they return from a honeymoon in Northern Michigan.
