Hindsight

Oh, for the chance to live over again
The days and the deeds of my youth—
To be able to point with disdain down the path
Where I took the wrong turn,
But now clearly discern
Which direction to take for the truth.

Oh, to have eyes that are wise in their time
To see through the sham of the prop—
To be able to view from the back of the stage
What the artifice shields,
But to scrutiny yields,
So the veil of uncertainty drops.

Oh, to make right all the wrongs of the past
And start with a ledger unspoiled
To be able to plot with infallible ken
Every act in advance
Without ever a chance
Of finding how vainly I've toiled.

Federal Savings Opening a Success

The grand opening of Birmingham Federal Savings new offices at 99 West Maple last week was a "splendid success," according to Walter Moreland, president.

During the three-day open house more than 3,000 persons visited the beautiful new quarters of the locally owned and managed financial institution. "The reception given our new offices by our customers and the public was beyond our most hopeful expectations," Mr. Moreland said. More new savings accounts were opened during the three days than are normally opened during any two month period, he said. "Our heads are spinning from the many fine compliments, presents and flowers presented to us by our many friends," he said.

Detroiters Injured In Maple Collision

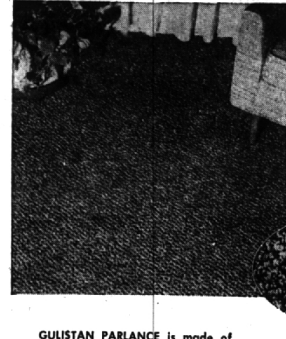

TROY—Two Detroiters were injured Saturday night on East Maple near Bers airport when an auto, which was pushing another car, swerved into oncoming traffic and collided with the Detroiters' car, according to Troy police.

Taken to Women's hospital, Detroit, were Mrs. Elizabeth Donahue, 61, who suffered rib injuries, and her husband, Harvey, 62, who received knee injuries.

The Donahues were passengers in a westbound auto driven by their son, Paul Mr. 23, of Detroit. Margaret Rose Wood, 29, of Berkeley, was operating the other car, which was pushing an auto auto east on Maple.
