Luderowski Speaks At Sculptors Meet

After a luncheon and brief business session at the home of Mrs. Frederick McRea on West Linsdin, Theodore Luderowski spoke at the November meeting of the Terra Cotta Sculptors.

Although design is a vast field, Luderowski touched briefly on many phases of the subject. He believes that people should be more observing, that imagination is developed and that upon entering art school, the thinking process is important and not ones drawing ability.

Luderowski also spoke on various design problems he has presented to his pupils and remarked that creative process is shown in every-thine done each day.
