Area Women's Groups Plan Christmas Parties Next Week

The Dec. 3 meeting of the Walnut Lake Woman's National Farm and Garden association will be a Christmas party. To add to the fun, members will have an exchange of gifts.

The party will be held at the Lone Pine road home of Mrs. Maurice R. Norton, with Mrs. Floyd Vine, Mrs. Otis Fockler and Mrs. Edward Griggs, tea hostesses. The annual Christmas party for Walnut Lake woman's club members will take place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the club's regular meeting place, the West Bloomfield township hall.

Chairman for the event is Mrs. Robert Karnes assisted by Mrs. Frank Morton, Mrs. Carl Polteger, Mrs. John Nahalsted, Mrs. A. G. Offenstien, Mrs. Julian Offenstien, Mrs. Elliott Oakwood, Mrs. Ross C. Banker, and Mrs. William Noche.

Mrs. Karnes called her committee together last evening to plan details of entertainment and refreshments.

bridge with five other couples who live in and around Birmingham. Mrs. Thompson is a member of the AAUW. The Thomsons entertained both their families at Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lydick of Brookfield Lane, moved here from Mundelein, Ill., a suburb of Chicago. Both are graduates of the University of Chicago, where Lydick was affiliated with Delta Upsilon and Mrs. Lydick was a member of the Quadrangles.

They have three sons, James 10, John, 8 and Tommy, 4. James and John are enrolled in Our Lady of Refuge parochial school. Since they are newcomers, the boys had their first glimpse of the Thanksgiving Day parade when they and their dad accompanied John Payne and his son and Cynthia Garvey into the city early in the morning to see it from the beginning.

John celebrated his eighth birthday last Friday with his dad, who will celebrate her sixth birthday today, and Tracy Ann who will become two years old the week between Christmas and New Year's.

Mexican Motif Is Used in Garden Club's Flower Arrangement Entry

Wing Lake branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association submitted an entry in flower arrangements at the International tea held at the Cranbrook Art Museum Nov. 14.

Wing Lake club's entry was a visitive pottery bowl containing yucca, pyracantha berries and wood roses with an aztec vest and an ancient pottery bull as background. The arrangement, titled "Old Mexico," was made by Mrs. Lee Carter, Mrs. Joseph Johnson and Mrs. Ralph Darling.

The board meeting of the Wing Lake branch of WNPFG was held Monday morning at the home of Mrs. Ralph Darling.

Mr. and Mrs. David Goodfellow, Worlington road, were dinner guests of their newly-married son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David N. Goodfellow, of Ann Arbor, Nov. 18.

Mrs. Goodfellow was the former Sandra Shaw of Pleasant Ridge. They were married in August at Angola, Ind. During Thanksgiving week they visited David's parents at Pleasant Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. David Goodfellow spent Thanksgiving in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hard of Birmingham, close friends and former neighbors.

Houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Worlington road, is Mrs. Hitchcock's mother, who will remain with them until after Christmas when they will drive her to her home in Rockford, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary Nov. 24 with dinner out and theatre to see "Seven Wonders of the World."

Mrs. Hitchcock recently entertained the membership and hostesses department of the Northwestern Women's club of Detroit for luncheon, business meeting and program.

Robert Hitchcock, with the U.S. Airforce, has been transferred from Bellville, Ill. to the air base at Tucson, Arizona.

Enroute to his new post, he stopped in Phoenix where he visited Mr. and Mrs. William Warner and son Bill, former Wing Lake residents who are now making their home in Phoenix.

Thanksgiving took on added pleasure for Steven and Diane Marlin when grandmother Mrs. Azel Johnson arrived from Chicago to share it with them. They were delighted to learn she plans to stay with them through the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maley of Rosalia, Wash., drove across the country on their vacation to visit their niece, Mrs. James Reynolds of West Dartmouth road, and her sister and family of New Jersey.

After their stay here when they became reacquainted with the Reynolds children, the Maleys left on their way to the east coast.

The following day, the Reynolds were surprised and delighted with more visitors from their home state of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henson of Spokane.
