

Husbands Included In WNFGA Branch Pot-luck Dinner

December 3 is an important date to all members of Bloomfield Hills branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association. It is their annual pot luck dinner meeting to which the husbands are invited and a mutually interesting program planned.

Lester L. Colbert, Edward S. Wellock, Howard Harrington, Edward P. Turner, James Longwell and D. W. Candler will act as carvers this year.

Dennis Glen Cooper, eminent explorer and travel lecturer, will show colored motion pictures of an "Isle Royale Vacation." A variety of subjects is covered in this film including the glorious wildflowers of the island, various types of fishing, hunting for precious stones, photographing moose, visiting ancient copper diggings of primitive man and a forest fire.

Jack Frost Ball To Be Attended By 200 Newcomers

Birmingham newcomers are making plans to attend a Jack Frost Ball Saturday evening at the Park Shelton hotel in Detroit. One hundred couples are expected to attend the second annual winter event.

Jack Daly's Trio, popular local musicians, will play for dancing beginning at 9:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 8 o'clock, preceded by cocktails at 7 p.m.

A winter theme will spark the decorations and members and guests will wear name tags in the shape of mittens, made of felt, each husband and wife wearing one of a pair. A general blue and white color scheme is planned, but table centerpieces will include a bright pink.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. B. Clifford Molney, 1774 Haynes, Birmingham, but tickets will not be available at the door.

St. Dunstan's Members Entertain

Dinner and the theatre will make up the evening Friday for two Birmingham couples who are members of St. Dunstan's guild. Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. O'Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ester have invited dinner guests to their homes that night.

After-dinner plans are to attend the theatre group's invitation show at Cranbrook pavilion at 8:30 p.m., where they will see "Brief Encounter" and "Florence Unlimited."

Burlingame Host Wessels Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burlingame of Oakhills drive, Bloomfield township, were hosts for the traditional Wessels reunion last week. The family has gathered for over 45 "feasts."

Present for the occasion were Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Wessels and children, Alice, Charles, Paity and John; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wessels; and the Burlingames' daughter and son-in-law, the Hans Wiemers of Ann Arbor.

Cubs To Gather White Material For Cancer Society

South Oakland County unit of the American Cancer society has announced the annual "Cub Scout Christmas Good Turn" is scheduled for Dec. 1 through Dec. 8. During this drive, cubs will gather clean white material, such as old sheets and pillow cases, for Cancer dressings, and will deposit it at various designated depots.

Depots in this area are Birmingham, Detroit Edison, 220 E. Merrill, week days only; Franklin, post office; Leithrup, Pete's Market, 28911 Southfield.

Yule Party Set For December 9

Members of the Auxiliary to Metropolitan club, Spirit 9, have planned their annual Christmas party for Wednesday, Dec. 9, at Wilkins restaurant, 4105 Orchard Lake road, Pontiac, at 8:30 p.m. Chairman Mrs. Sam Snell will be assisted by Mrs. Glen Foltz, Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Mrs. Robert Schuele.

Dinner reservations must be made by Dec. 1 with Mrs. Foster Raymond, 539 Towansend. Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
