BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

AL KASSABIAN, local real estate man, of 474 North Woodward, has managed to combine two hobbies, his photography and membership in Rochester's Avon players, Armed with his Leica, Al regularly attends play rehearsals and productions and invariably comes out with a remarkable candid record of the evening. This latest group of pictures, taken at the players' recent production of the Broadway hit, "The Tender Trap", were exhibited at the group's monthly dinner meeting at 4 von Pavilion, Rochester, and attracted special attention from members and guests.

WE LIKE THE WAY the pundit who wrote the re-cent South Oakland Planning Council bulletin refers to the seriousness of this area's flooding problem. Quoting one community's representative, he says. "The problem in our community is becoming critical. We simply do not have enough basements to hold all the water."

THE NAME GIVEN TO Thomas Andrew Allen, son born to Mayor and Mrs. James C. Allen Seot. 28, stems from his parents' fondness for the Democratic party, his mother claims. The Thomas, she says, is for Thomas Jefferson, and Andrew is for Andrew Jackson. "Two good Democrats," emphasizes Mrs. Allen.

AFTER EXCHANGE CLUBBERS heard a program on wild life recently, their Scribe Art Lake commented that in a few weeks some of the club's members may save a few bucks from starving to death.

B'ham Lions Host Inter-Club Meet

Birmingham Lions were hosts Bloomfield Hills, Clawson, Berkley gesterday to South Oakland Lions and Royal Oak clubs gathered for at a luncheon at Northwood In. the inter-club meeting at which radio star Bud Guest, of Southfield Approximately 165 Lions from township, was guest speaker.
