MRS. THOMAS E. DAILEY

Battle Creek Church Is Scene of Wedding

Janice Ann Dempsey and Thomas Edwin Dailey exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday afternoon in First Congregational church chapel, Battle Creek, before an altar decorated with baskets of white pompoms and chrysanthemums and sprig candelabra. Rev. Carleton Brooks Miller was assisted by Rev. Robert H. Jongward of First Methodist church, Battle Creek, in solemnizing the marriage.

The bride is the daughter of the W. F. Dempseys of Battle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Dailey of West Shore drive, Orchard Lake, are parents of the groom.

JANICE's bridal gown was fashioned of Italian silk with short sleeves and full, gathered terminating in chapel train. Iridescent sequins and seed pearls were embroidered on Alencon lace, framing the portrait neckline. A hand embroidered pearl cap secured her finger tip length veil of silk illusion and she carried a prayer book topped by a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and cymbidium orchids.

Proceeding the bride down the aisle were the matron of honor, Mrs. Lawrence C. Dailey of East Lansing, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. William H. Dempsey of Battle Creek and Diane Dailey, sister of the groom, of Orchard Lake.

THEY WERE identically dressed in ballerina length green iridescent taffeta frocks complemented by bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Lawrence C. Dailey was his brother's best man and ushers were Norman Knauss and James Kernath of Dearborn, Joseph Talmadge of Columbus, Ohio, and the bride's brother, William H. Dempsey, of Battle Creek.

After a reception in the church parlors, Tom and his bride left for a honeymoon trip to New Orleans, La. Janice's going away costume was a skipper blue suit accented by a black velvet trimmed white fur hat and black velvet bag.

They will make their home in Detroit.
