

Nancy C. Bergdahl Wed At Martha-Mary Chapel

Martha-Mary chapel, Greenfield Village, was the scene of Nancy Claire Bergdahl's marriage to Walter Neil Robertson of Chicago. Dr. R. G. Riemann solemnized the rites at 2 p.m. Saturday evening.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Andrew Bergdahl, 712 Fairfax, Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Robertson of Huntington Woods.

A CASCADE arrangement of stephanotis and camellias complemented Nancy's bridal gown of eggshell antique silk tulle. The bodice was designed with long sleeves and portrait neckline enhanced by a tailored bow. Her cathedral length veil of heirloom Brussels lace fell from a headpiece fashioned of material to match her gown.

Susan Bergdahl was groomed in American beauty satin to be maid of honor. Her headpiece was composed of white shattered carnations and the same flowers were combined with American beauty roses for her bouquet. Walter's three brothers, Thomas, Richard and James, attended him as best man and ushers, respectively.

FOLLOWING the wedding ceremony, guests were greeted at a reception in Clinton Inn. Mrs. Bergdahl received in a champagne colored silk peau de sole dress accented by a small tulle hat. Mrs. Robertson chose white accessories for her blue lace gown.

After a motor trip to Point Clear and New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will take up residence in Chicago. The bride's traveling costume was a charcoal brown wool suit with matching accessories.

Den 12 Cub Scouts Visit Indian Burial Ground

Happy hunting grounds were visited by area cub scouts when eight boys from den 12 were escorted by Fenton Watkins, den master Robert Holzworth and Mrs. B. J. French to an Indian burial ground located near Birmingham.

The boys were thrilled when, as souvenirs of their trip, Mr. Watkins presented each one with a genuine Indian arrow-head. The day was enjoyed by Stephen Fisher, Mike Castle, Pat Feighan, Greg French, John Provencher, Doug Foban, Jim Shoemaker and Greg Holzworth.

A weekend campout at D-Bar-A ranch in Metamora was spent by 10 troop B-25 boy scouts. Phil Benson scout master, helped the boys dig their tents and set up a field kitchen. Meals were prepared by the scouts from breakfast on Saturday until dinner on Sunday. During the campout the boys, with full pack, undertook a five mile hike.

Mrs. Leo Case of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor was hostess to the monthly meeting of one of the many area bridge groups last week in her home. Seated around the card tables were Mrs. Robert Distler, Mrs. Toward Ross, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Mrs. Robert Kaufman and Mrs. John Ward.

Mrs. Myron Fisher, Mrs. Leslie Rose, Mrs. Thomas Schulte and Mrs. Howard Ross all of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, jointly entertained neighbors in the Fisher one at a baby shower for Mrs. Richard Monley. Papers of pink and blue surrounded the huge white stork that entered the buffet. Guests were Mrs. William Mara, Mrs. William Morgan, Mrs. Warren McChimney, and Mrs. Pete Doering.

Master Tommy Schulte was honored guest at a birthday party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Witherbee road, Troyton Manor. After blowing out the three candles that topped his birthday cake, he shared it with grand-

Hunt Club Is Scene of Surprise Birthday Dinner for Val Armstrong

A big surprise befall Val Armstrong the evening of her 15th birthday when she went to the Hunt club with her parents for dinner. There she found a group of friends waiting to celebrate with her.

Jane Wilson was among the group as was Chip Wilson, Becky De Witt, Joyce Harlan, Linda Stephenson and Sandy Deussenbury.

The whole club joined in to sing happy birthday as the birthday cake, all aglow, was brought into the dining room. Val is the daughter of the Victor Armstrongs of Roland drive.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Christie of Ardmore road have just returned from a three-day trip which took them to Detroit. While the news will startle some, it will make sense to many. Feeling in need of a vacation, yet not wanting to travel, the Christies spent three days at a downtown hotel where they were able to shop, take in some shows, get a glimpse of vice president Nixon. Returning home relaxed, they summed it up as a most successful holiday.

Busy rehearsing their roles in a production of "Florence Unlimited," at the Village Playhouse Saturday, Nov. 24 are Mrs. Gayle H. Welch Jr., Mrs. Raymond Giffels, Mrs. T. K. McKenzie and Mrs. Frank Mosbacher.

Sue Lenzon, daughter of the Paul V. Lenzons of Hamilton road is planning a trip to Monroe, Utah over the Thanksgiving holidays to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Erickson. Sue is attending Utah State Agricultural college.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron and children, Lynn, David and twins Cathy and Carl soon will be leaving their home on Yarmouth road for a new home in Birmingham.

Mrs. Glenn Caldwell of Gleggery road entertained Group I of the women's guild of the First Methodist church. Some 20 guests enjoyed luncheon and a talk on spirituals by Mrs. Newell Allen.

The Caldwell and daughter Jean spent a weekend at the home of Mrs. Caldwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Brock, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Schulte and aunt and uncle, the Howard Rosses.

TROYTON NEWCOMERS
Troyton Manor welcomes two newcomers Mr. and Mrs. George Roger Roth and Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Goldsmith. The Roths, who live on Norwich road moved from Clawson. They have two children, Leo, 18 months, and George, 7 months old.

Mr. Roth is a sales engineer for General Electric. He received his degree from Purdue University. Mrs. Roth attended Northwestern University and is a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Both enjoy bridge and sporting events.

Although originally Birminghamites, the Goldsmiths moved into their new home on Norwich road after residing two years in Ann Arbor. They have a daughter, Robyn, 10 months old. A University of Michigan graduate, Mr. Goldsmith is associated with the Swanson architectural firm. He is a member of Delta Epsilon fraternity. Mrs. Goldsmith has her degree from Albion college and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Mrs. Robert Welch and Mrs. Charles Benson invited about 20 neighbors to the Benson home on Brooklawn road for a toy demonstration. While enjoying cider and donuts, most were able to complete their Christmas gift purchases.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penninger entertained at a family dinner for daughter Peggy's second birthday. Joining the festivities were Peggy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whalon, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Debiem, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Whalon, Jr. and children Susan and Mike.
