Family Concert Scheduled Sunday By Symphony

South Oakland symphony orchestra, under the direction of Henri Nusco, will present the first of two family concerts at 3 p. m. Sunday in Royal Oak Dondero high school auditorium.

South Oakland symphony society sponsors of the concert, are using this performance as a "testing ground" if the demand is great enough, this type of concert will be repeated for music-loving families in the community.

Tickets are now being sold in the schools, or call the South Oakland Symphony Society.

SPECIALLY selected for complete family enjoyment, the program includes excerpts from "Carmen" by Bizet; Beethoven's piano concerto No. 2, "The Telephone", an operetta by Gian-Carlo Menotti; and American Salute by Morton Gould.

The performance of "The Telephone" will be the only one given this season in the Detroit area. Shirley Zaft of Oak Park and Wesley Dalton of Detroit will star in this delightfully entertaining modern operetta.

Miss Zaft, a lyric coloratura soprano, has sung leading operatic roles with the Detroit Opera Society and Wayne university theater. She has also appeared as a soloist with the Detroit symphony orchestra, and has been highly acclaimed for her outstandingly beautiful voice.

DALTON, a Columbia recording star, has played many roles with the New York Opera Co. At present, he is taking a semi-holiday from an extremely active vocal career, but his deep interest in the South Oakland symphony induced him to appear in the operetta.

Robert Jochmans of Pontiac, who has been guest conductor with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Rogers, conductor of the Pops Concert Orchestra, St. Joseph, Michigan, will conduct the excerpts from "Carmen".

THE BEETHOVEN concerto will be played by Norma Wells, a senior in music at Marygrove college. Members of the orchestra, from the Birmingham area, are Robert Kutaher, Donald Minor, Maurice and Dorothy Felton and Oliver Rogers.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
