

Rouge Property Sold to City

For $10,000, the city of Birmingham has purchased two Lakeside drive lots north of the Rouge River and three to the south. City officials will use some of the bankside area for flood control purposes, and expect to fill in and then re-sell a couple of residential building sites.

Area Men Enroll In ROTC at MSU

Several Birmingham area men are enrolled in the Air Force reserve officer training corps at Michigan State university, where they are students.

They include Willis Anderson, Jr., son of the Willis Andersons of Vaughan road, Bloomfield Hills; John O'Hara Allison, son of Mrs. D. J. Allison, 1801 W. Lincoln; Walter Willett, whose home is with the George E. Bees of Lenhill court, Bloomfield township;

RICHARD Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Henderson of Ingleside drive, Southfield township; Ted K. Robinson, whose parents are the L. K. Robinsons, 1851 Saratoga, Lathrup Village; and Michael E. Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Oldham of Maryland Blvd.

The Air Force program is designed to give an insight into the role of aviation today. Included in the two years of study are courses in global geography, international tensions, and aerial warfare.

THE MEN will fly in an Air Force aircraft, visit various bases

HAVING completed the 26-week officers basic course at Quantico, Va., 2nd Lt. Edwin A. Matus, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kalman E. Matus, 240 Aspen road, has been transferred to Pensacola, Fla.

and become members of organizations such as rifle team, drill team, air police squadron and ground observer corps. If they successfully complete the basic course, they will be eligible for entrance into the advanced program which leads to flying duties as an Air Force lieutenant.
