

LWV To Review Responsibilities At Unit Meetings

Meetings of the six units of the Birmingham League of Women Voters are planned next week to bring members up-to-date information on issues which the league has studied and taken a stand on in the past.

Issues not on the current active agenda but considered as "continuing responsibilities" of the league will be presented by a committee headed by Mrs. G. B. D. Peterson.

HOSTESSES for each unit meeting will be: Unit I, November 12, 1 p.m., Mrs. John Robert Hamill, 945 N. Glenhurst; unit II, November 15, 1 p.m., Mrs. Max Miller, 7410 Franklin road; unit III, November 13, 8 p.m., Mrs. C. S. Maxwell, 2738 Hyland drive; unit IV, November 14, 9:30 a.m., Mrs. Walter Jackson, 927 Madison; unit V, November 14, 8 p.m., Mrs. Caroline Palmer, 916 Harmon; unit VI, November 15, 8 p.m., Mrs. William McNamee, 624 Chesterfield.

National issues to be discussed include the United Nations, foreign trade and opposition to any constitutional changes that would limit the existing powers of the Chief Executive and Congress over foreign relations.

ON THE STATE level, some of the league's continuing responsibilities are in taxation, development of an equitable and adequate fiscal system and FEPC.

Locally, the League is interested in civilian defense, children's services, the library and city planning. Mrs. Howard J. Livewood is chairman for local continuing responsibilities.

Vows, Rings Exchanged In Candlelight Rites

A candlelight white floor length gown of raw silk was worn by Judith Lone Pasanen when she exchanged rings and vows with Dalton Lenard Hebert Saturday. The Rev. A. W. Born officiated at the seven o'clock candlelight ceremony in the Holy Cross Lutheran church, Detroit.

A Sabrina neckline accented the bodice of Dupioni lace fashioned along princess lines. From her fast headed headpiece fell an elbow length hand rolled veil. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and baby mums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Pasanen of Detroit. Her husband's parents are the Clarence E. Shorts of Manchester road, Birmingham.

A FLOOR length, short sleeved princess style gown of brown crystaltalette over light brown taffeta was worn by the honor attendant.

She's wearing a sarong Jr. the criss-cross girdle that walks and won't ride up Suddenly teenagers love girdles—and the reason is Sarong Jr. No pull, no tug, no bones, just wonderful comfort that keeps your junior figure glamorously slender all day long. Both the panty and the girdle have Sarong Jr.'s exclusive criss-cross feature that keeps your girdle in place, never binding, never riding up. Patented construction lifts and flattens your tummy... persuasive, lightweight elastic put your curves in the right places.

Sarong Jr. girdle, $5.95
Sarong Jr. panty girdle, $6.95 with detachable brace, $7.95

600 Guests Witness Brewer-Dimiceli Rites

Mary M. Dimiceli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dimiceli of Detroit, became the bride of Theodore S. Brewer, son of the Samuel G. Brewers of Lauren Court, Birmingham, in a morning ceremony Oct. 27 at St. Mary's church, Detroit.

Six hundred guests witnessed the rites and were greeted at a breakfast reception at American Legion post 232.

THE BRIDE'S gown was fashioned of white silk shantung with chantilly lace trim. A jeweled crown secured her finger-length veil and white roses composed her bouquet.

Anna Coppola of Detroit was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Joan Catalano of Detroit and Constance Gambino of Allen Park. The honor maid's gown was fashioned of taffeta and tulle in a shrimp shade and the maids wore identical gowns in aqua.

Tulle crowns matched their frocks and they carried arrangements of beige roses.

USHERS were C. Dimiceli and A. Catalano and best man was Rudy Buglione, all of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding day, Mrs. Dimiceli selected a blue silk shantung gown with a corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom pinned pink roses to the neckline of her rose and blue silk shantung dress.

The newlyweds will reside in Birmingham upon their return from a honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains.

over taffeta with a full skirt and large sash.

Mark Kissinger was ring bearer in a navy blue Eton suit.

JOHN LEE was best man. Ushers were George W. Kissinger, Peter Pasanen, Stanley Cole, William Hamann, who flew home from Homestead AFB in Florida.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pasanen wore a floor length gown of forest green silk taffeta with matching petal hat and gold and brown accessories. She had bronze flowers pinned to her bag.

Mrs. Short chose a floor length gown of flannel silk taffeta with lace bodice. Her flowers were white camellias.

A reception at Botsford Inn followed the wedding. After a brief honeymoon the couple will make their home on Roselawn avenue, Detroit.
