

Southfield, Troy Take 12-Town Drain Case to Court

Friday's meeting to set final costs on the Twelve-Town drain project was cancelled Tuesday by an Oakland county Circuit court order.

Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland brought the cost division assessment to a halt by decreeing that Southfield and Troy objections to their individual assessments must be heard in court before final costs on the $38 million project can be set.

Judge Holland gave top priority to the case and set trial for Oct. 30. Both communities indicated they may go to the Michigan Supreme court if they lose.

Gets 60 Days On Check Charge

After pleading guilty to charges of uttering and publishing resulting from a $23 bank check cashed at Huston Hardware, 205 N. Woodward, Birmingham, a Wyandotte man was sentenced Monday by Oakland county circuit Judge H. Russel Holland.

William John Hodson, 29, was placed on two years' probation, ordered to spend the first 60 days in Oakland county jail, make restitution, and pay $100 costs.

He is on probation for the same offense in Wayne county.

I tell my friends

use Wallpaper

for a lovely, gracious home.

For lovely wall decoration that lasts longer, costs less over the years, CHOOSE...

IMPERIAL Washable WALLPAPERS

Nothing can equal wallpaper for the loveliness and graciousness that women of taste achieve in their homes. Informal home decorators never copy the bare, clinical look of "display" rooms in their homes.

It's easier, quicker hanging with IMPERIAL because rolls are trimmed.

Restrict Lumber Reports Break-In

In a break-in discovered at 8:05 a.m. Monday at Restrict Lumber company, 425 S. Eion, $225 in cash was taken from an office safe.

Det. Lt. Merin Holmquist of Birmingham police said entry to the building was gained by forcing a lock, and that the break-in occurred sometime after 9 p.m. Sunday. The safe was opened by using the combination, Holmquist said.
