Party Honors

Mary Helen LaFave On 13th Birthday

At Mary Helen LaFave's birthday party Saturday guests, instead of playing the usual "pin the tail on the donkey," tried to "pin the shibboleth on Bill."

The celebration, in honor of Mary's thirteenth birthday, was in the form of a buffet supper, and neighborhood girl friends and Holy Name classmates came to the party. Games and high-heeled shoes for the occasion.

Coronations of carnations for all the girls added to the festive air of the party, held in the home of the honoree's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. LaFave of North Verona, Beverly Hills.

Ingathering Workers Entertain at Home

Mrs. Robert Nadal of Dorchester road, Birmingham, had a pre-ingathering tea at her home just before she departed for a ten-day stay in Florida. An assistant secretary of the Birmingham-Bloomsfield Needlework Guild she will be back in time for the annual meeting and branch Oct. 17 at the Community House.

Mrs. William B. Saunders, a new director of the branch, has asked a group of friends to join her for coffee on Friday. Each bringing at least two articles of clothing for the ingathering will include Mrs. Ronald Bultman, Mrs. Edward Proctor, Jr., Mrs. William K. Downey, Mrs. Jack Zimer, Miss Julie Otter, Mrs. William Rodie, Mrs. Walter Denison and Mrs. Charles Norwood.

To Visit Relatives At Homestead in Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moss of Linden are leaving Saturday for New York. They are combining a business and pleasure trip which will include shopping and a few shows.

They plan to go on to Washington D. C. and Strasburg, Va., where they will visit cousins residing on the old plantation homestead. From there they will visit Mr. Moss' brother, William C. Moss, in Martinsville, Va., before returning home.

Home Economists To Meet October 18

Mrs. Henry Stahl of Beverly road, Southfield township, reports that there will be a meeting of the Detroit Home Economists in Homestead at 8:30 p.m., room 264 of the Old Main building at Wayne University Oct. 18.

Mrs. Stahl is the newly elected secretary of the group whose purpose is to help the home economist-homemaker keep in touch with her profession.

Activities

Season tickets for the dances, at a cut-rate price, can be had by phoning the Fraternity Holidays of Popsites street. The committee promises a gay time for novices and experts alike.

"Meet Your School Board" will be the theme of the Poppleton PTA meeting tonight at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room. Board members will stage a mock meeting. Fifth grade room mothers will serve refreshments.

Big event at Poppleton is the "Country Fair" scheduled to begin at noon Saturday at the school, located at Sixteen Mile and Crooks roads.

Lloyd Stage, Fair chairman, is in charge of the midway, movies and rides. Other chairmen are Mrs. Ronald Rowanville, fancy work; Mrs. Howard Bemis, bake sale; Mrs. Tom Rector, white elephant table; and Mrs. Harvey Shorter, greens.

Dinner is to be served at 5:30 p.m. under the supervision of Mrs. Orville McDiarmid. The festivities will end at 8 p.m.

Vaughan
Parents of Vaughan school students turned out 200 strong to "get-acquainted" at the first PTO meeting of the year last week. Edgar A. Guest, Jr., was the guest speaker.

Cider and donuts were served in the cafeteria by the hospitality committee prior to the general meeting. Introduced to the gathering were the principal, Mrs. Hazel MacGill, and PTO officers. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Strickland, president; Mrs. Neva Althouse, teacher representative; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Olsen, secretaries; Mr. and Mrs. Thurber Woolson, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sterling, library and scout chairman; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Givens, program and publicity chairman.
